Day 1. Perth to Albany – Through the Darling Ranges (D)

Depart Perth and travel south through the scenic Darling Ranges, enjoying changing landscapes as farmland gives way to rolling hills. Continue through the Wheatbelt with stops along the way before arriving in Albany, Western Australia's first settlement, where coastal beauty and rich history set the scene for the days ahead.

5 nights: Ace Accommodation, Albany

Day 2. Albany – National Anzac Centre and Historic Precincts (BD)

Today is dedicated to Albany's powerful military history. Visit the Princess Royal Fortress and the acclaimed National Anzac Centre, where personal stories and immersive displays bring the Anzac legacy to life. Continue to Albany's cultural precincts, including the Entertainment Centre and Museum of the Great Southern, for deeper insight into the region's social and maritime history.

Day 3. King George Sound and Kalgan River Cruise (BLD)

Begin the day with coastal scenery at Middleton Beach before boarding a scenic wildlife and history cruise. Travel across King George Sound and into the ancient Kalgan River, spotting birdlife and marine creatures while learning about the area's natural and cultural heritage. After lunch, visit Darrel Radcliffe's Bush Gallery to admire his remarkable chainsaw-carved timber sculptures.

Day 4. Denmark and Greens Pool – Coastal Beauty (BLD)

Travel west to Denmark, stopping to enjoy local stories and scenic views. Lunch is enjoyed in a picturesque setting before heading to Greens Pool, where calm turquoise waters are framed by granite boulders and white sand. Time here allows for relaxed exploring, photography or simply soaking in one of Western Australia's most beautiful beaches.

Day 5. Discovery Bay and Torndirrup National Park (BD)

Uncover Albany's whaling history at Discovery Bay with a guided visit to the historic Whaling Station. Continue to Torndirrup National Park to witness the raw power of the Southern Ocean at The Gap and Natural Bridge. This afternoon blends heritage with flavour and character as you visit historic Strawberry Hill and a fascinating local collection before enjoying a special farewell dinner.

Day 6. Albany to Perth – Farewell to the Great Southern (BL)

Begin the journey back to Perth, travelling north through pastoral landscapes and charming country towns. Enjoy a relaxed farewell lunch along the way before arriving back in Perth, where you will be met and taken safely home.
