

Iceland Fjords with Scotland Cruise

Scotland and Iceland with Holland America

17 Days | Friday 5 June to Sunday 21 June 2026

Bon voyage on a sweeping northern summer journey where long daylight meets storied cities and wild coasts. Begin with two nights in Amsterdam to settle in and explore canals, museums and leafy streets. Then board Holland America's Rotterdam for a 14-night voyage through Scotland and across Iceland's fjords. Expect towering cliffs, waterfalls, bird-filled headlands and lively harbour towns, with time to discover Aberdeen and Edinburgh on the return. From Heimaey's volcanic history to Reykjavik's creative energy, every day brings crisp sea air, rugged scenery and rich culture.

Highlights

- 14 nights cruising on Rotterdam with Holland America
- Scottish and Celtic history across the Highlands
- Sail through Seyðisfjörður's waterfalls and green valleys
- Cafés, gardens and museums in Akureyri at the head of a vast fjord
- Step ashore on Heimaey in the Westman Islands
- Djúpivogur gateway to the Valley of Waterfalls and Hofellsjökull Glacier
- Experience Reykjavik's vibrant capital scene
- Edinburgh's castle, St Margaret's Chapel, museums and galleries

Your holiday itinerary (ex Perth, Western Australia)

Day 1. Amsterdam arrival (D)

Arrive in Amsterdam and transfer to your hotel. Settle in and enjoy a welcome dinner with your fellow travellers.

2 nights: Inntel Hotel Amsterdam

Day 2. Amsterdam at leisure (BD)

Ease into the European time zone with a relaxed day to explore canals, museums or a gentle canal cruise. Join your group this evening for dinner.

Day 3. Embark Rotterdam in Rotterdam (BLD)

After breakfast travel to Rotterdam to embark Holland America's Rotterdam. Unpack once and make yourself at home as the ship sets sail.

14 nights: Holland America Line 'Rotterdam'

Day 4. At sea (BLD)

Enjoy a relaxing day as you discover dining venues, entertainment and open decks. Settle into the rhythm of life at sea.

Day 5. Inverness, Scotland (BLD)

Call at the Highland capital, rich in Scottish and Celtic history. Choose from shore options that may include castles, distilleries or a visit to Loch Ness.

Day 6. At sea (BLD)

Sail north toward Iceland. Join a talk, catch a show or simply watch the horizon from the promenade.

Day 7. Seyðisfjörður, Iceland (BLD)

Arrive in a colourful fjord-side town ringed by lush valleys and waterfalls. Wander the Blue Church and artist studios or join an excursion inland.

Day 8. Scenic cruising Seyðisfjörður (BLD)

Glide between snowcapped ranges and black-sand coves. Watch for seals and seabirds including puffins and arctic terns.

Day 9. Ísafjörður, Iceland (BLD)

A Westfjords hub with small-town charm set beneath steep mountains. Optional visits include Dynjandi waterfall or seabird-rich Látrabjarg cliffs. Tender required.

Day 10. Cruising Ísafjarðardjúp (BLD)

Sail a grand fjord carved by ice where green slopes meet deep blue water. Pass fishing hamlets and working boats heading to sea.

Day 11. Reykjavík, Iceland (BLD)

The world's most northerly capital brims with culture and geothermal wonders. Options include city touring, hot pools, whale watching or the Golden Circle.

Day 12. Heimaey, Westman Islands (BLD)

Explore dramatic volcanic history on the archipelago's only inhabited island. Walk cooled lava fields, hike Eldfell or visit Eldheimar Museum. Tender required.

Day 13. Djúpvogur, Iceland (BLD)

A quiet fishing village with Viking roots set on Berufjörður. Excursions reach the Valley of Waterfalls and Hofellsjökull Glacier. Tender required.

Day 14. Runavik, Faroe Islands (BLD)

Runavík is the largest settlement on Eysturoy Island. This seaside town is nestled along the Skálafjørður fjord. Surrounded by several mountains, this is a Beautiful fjord and the deepest in the Faroe Islands.
