Your holiday itinerary (ex Perth, Western Australia)

Day 1: Perth to Pemberton (D)

We collect you from home and transfer you to the coach. Journeying along the Harvest Highway, enjoy a delightful French-inspired morning tea at Café Cherie before passing through the picturesque rural towns of Donnybrook, Balingup, Bridgetown, and Manjimup. Take in the rolling pastures and orchards that define this beautiful landscape.

Overnight: The Pemberton Hotel, Pemberton

Day 2: Manjimup History & Donnelly River Cruise (BLD)

Step aboard for a serene and scenic Donnelly River cruise, winding through ancient forests to the rugged coastline. Enjoy the tranquility of this remote and unspoiled waterway before arriving at Dingup House, a charming heritage homestead with over 150 years of history. Stroll through its stunning gardens, enjoy a delicious lunch, and meet the friendly farm animals. In the afternoon, a local guide will lead us on an enriching tour of Manjimup's Timber & Heritage Park, uncovering the stories of the region's pioneering past.

Day 3: Pemberton's Natural Wonders & Tramway (BD)

Begin your morning surrounded by the raw beauty of Beedelup Falls, followed by an awe-inspiring visit to the towering Dave Evans Bicentennial Tree, one of the tallest fire lookout trees in the world. Later, board the Pemberton Tram for a scenic railway journey through lush forests and historic timber country. Enjoy free time for lunch in Pemberton's charming town centre before discovering Pemberton Artscape, where local artists bring the landscape to life through unique forest-inspired balustrades. Cap off the day with a wine tasting at Hidden River Estate, savouring the region's finest selections.

Day 4: Pemberton to Perth (B)

Take in the scenic drive through the quaint towns of Nannup and Balingup on your journey back to Perth. A delightful farewell lunch awaits at the Drakesbrook Hotel in Waroona, the perfect way to end this memorable getaway. Upon arrival in Perth, we will ensure your safe return home.
