Your holiday itinerary (ex Perth, Western Australia)

Day 1. Perth to Geraldton (D)

We collect you from home for your journey north. Stop in Gingin for morning tea and a guided wildflower experience at the Gravity Discovery Centre. Continue to Jurien Bay for lunch at leisure before travelling to the coastal city of Geraldton for dinner and a relaxed evening.

4 nights: Best Western Hospitality Inn, Geraldton

Day 2. Historic Geraldton and Northampton (BD)

Begin the day with a guided tour of the Museum of Geraldton then visit St Francis Xavier Cathedral, an architectural masterpiece by Monsignor Hawes. Enjoy lunch at leisure in Geraldton before travelling to Northampton, one of Western Australia's oldest settlements, for a scenic afternoon drive and local history insights.

Day 3. Wildflower Guide and Mullewa (BLD)

Join your specialist wildflower guide for a full day exploring the Coalseam Conservation Park in search of everlastings and the prized Wreath Leschenaultia. Continue to Mullewa, a region renowned for its vivid wildflower displays. After a rewarding day of discovery, enjoy a relaxing dinner back in Geraldton.

Day 4. Chapman Valley (BLD)

Travel into the Chapman Valley to admire seasonal wildflowers at the Chapman Valley Fishing Park. Visit the historic township of Nanson to explore the Chapman Valley Museum's collection of farm machinery, railway artefacts and early mining equipment. Enjoy lunch at the picturesque Lavender Valley Farm before returning to Geraldton to visit the HMAS Sydney II Memorial.

Day 5. Geraldton to Perth (BL)

Travel south through Alexander Morrison and Watheroo National Parks before stopping in Moora for lunch. Continue toward Perth with a mid-afternoon comfort stop in Bindoon. Upon arrival, you will be transferred safely home.

Please note that the appearance of wildflowers is a natural event dependent on rainfall and is therefore not guaranteed.
