Your holiday itinerary (ex Perth Western Australia)

Day 1. Perth to Albany – Great Southern Gateway (D)

Depart Perth and travel south crossing the Darling Range and journeying through Wheatbelt towns before arriving in the historic coastal city of Albany. Enjoy scenic countryside along the way as the landscapes gradually change from farmland to rugged southern coastline.

2 nights: Ace Accommodation Albany

Day 2. Kalgan River Cruise and Albany Coastline (BD)

This morning enjoy a relaxing cruise along the Kalgan River travelling from Oyster Harbour into ancient waterways rich in wildlife and history. The afternoon is free to enjoy Albany at leisure with time to explore the foreshore historic precincts or simply relax by the water.

Day 3. Stirling Range and Bremer Bay Coast (BLD)

Travel into Stirling Range National Park where dramatic mountain peaks and spring wildflowers create a spectacular setting. A local wildflower guide shares insight into the region's unique flora and landscapes as you journey through the park. Continue to Ongerup to visit the Yongergnow Australian Malleefowl Centre before travelling south to the picturesque coastal town of Bremer Bay.

1 night: Bremer Bay Resort Bremer Bay

Day 4. Bremer Bay to Hyden – Coastline to Wheatbelt (BD)

Enjoy the relaxed coastal atmosphere of Bremer Bay with time to explore the Wellstead Homestead and surrounding estuary landscapes. Continue inland through changing scenery as coastal views give way to Wheatbelt country before arriving in Hyden later in the day.

1 night: Wave Rock Hotel Hyden

Day 5. Hyden to Perth – Wave Rock and Farewell (BL)

Visit the iconic Wave Rock and nearby Wildflower Shoppe to view displays of Western Australian flora. Travel through the Wheatbelt and enjoy a farewell lunch before continuing to Perth where you will be met and taken safely home.

Please note that the appearance of wildflowers is a natural event dependent on seasonal conditions and rainfall and therefore cannot be guaranteed.
