We do not handle client money. We never handle cash and will only accept a cheque made out to us or bank transfer, in settlement of advice and service fees. Our preferred method of payment is bank transfer.

YOUR DUTY TO DISCLOSE INFORMATION

The financial advice and recommendations we provide are based on your personal financial circumstances and objectives that you disclose to us. We will confirm these and the reasons for any recommendation in our advice. It is important that the information you give us is accurate and a true reflection of your current circumstances, as that will form the basis of the advice and recommendations that we give.

You must provide complete and accurate information to product providers such as insurance, mortgage or investment companies. If you don't disclose relevant information or a change of circumstances, your policy, mortgage or investment product may be invalidated - for example, an insurance claim may not be paid. ADDRESSING FINANCIAL CRIME

We are required to comply with laws and regulations designed to prevent money laundering and other financial crime. Our responsibilities include verifying the identity and address of our clients and anyone making payments on their behalf. If asked, you must supply proof of your address and/or identity.

Identity verification checks include electronic searches of the electoral register and the use of credit reference agencies, which will result in a soft footprint on your credit file. This footprint is not visible to other financial service providers and does not affect your credit rating in any way. Your acceptance of these Terms represents your permission for us to carry out these checks.

- to make these Terms easier to understand, fairer or to correct errors.

We will give you at least 30 days' notice of any change to these Terms that may be detrimental to you, unless we are required to make the change sooner.

These Terms are based on our understanding of the law and regulations when the Terms were written. If there is a change to the law or regulations, or how they are interpreted, we will not be liable for any loss that may result.
