

How to Revoke a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care and Living Will

Can I revoke my Durable Power of Attorney for health care and living will?

Because a Durable Power of Attorney for health care and living will was given voluntarily by you to another person, you have the right to revoke it at any time so long as you are legally competent.

How can I revoke my Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care and Living Will?

The best way to revoke a Durable Power of Attorney for health care and living will is to make a written statement revoking the document. A fill-in-the-blank form is included on the next page.

Then, you should give it to everyone who has a copy of the revoked Durable Power of Attorney for health care and living will. This includes any health care providers.

Then, you should destroy any copy of the revoked Durable Power of Attorney for health care and living will

How to contact us:

Call us at 614-824-2503 or 844-302-1800

Visit us online at seols.org or columbuslegalaid.org

The information on this flyer is not legal advice.

If you are seeking representation or legal advice, please contact SEOLS or LASC.

An attorney-client relationship does not exist between you and SEOLS or LASC.

REVOCATION OF HEALTH CARE & LIVING WILL POWER OF ATTORNEY

I, _____, whose permanent address is _____, hereby revoke and render void the durable power of attorney for health care and living will power of attorney I previously gave to _____ or any person, to act in my stead, including but not limited to any power of attorney over my person or estate at any time in the past.

I further attest that a photostatic copy of this Revocation of Power of Attorney constitutes a “duplicate original” of said Revocation of Power of Attorney and thus is as effective as the original revocation itself.

Signature

SWORN TO AND SUBSCRIBED BEFORE ME, a Notary Public, this _____ day of _____, 20____. By my signature below, I attest that _____ did sign and acknowledge this Revocation of Power of Attorney before me on the date set forth above.

NOTARY PUBLIC