

Marion County Supplemental Forms
Filing A Complaint for Parentage, Allocation of Parental Rights and Responsibility (Custody), and Parenting Time (Visitation)

This packet is for parents seeking to establish parental rights and responsibilities (custody) and/or parenting time (visitation) and there is no other custody order regarding the child. You must file a separate set of filings for each child. We suggest you read these instruction pages completely before starting to complete the included forms.

You are receiving a packet of documents to file in Court, pro se, to establish parentage, allocate parental rights and responsibilities (custody), and parenting time (visitation). Pro se means you will complete these documents on your own, file them, and represent yourself. Please note that this packet is intended to help you comply with the local rule requirements of the Marion County Family Court at the time this packet was created. The Local Rules may change and you may want to check the local rules, at <http://www.co.marion.oh.us/familycourt/> before you file. You will need another packet with Ohio Supreme Court Forms, in addition to this packet of forms, to file. Please make sure you have both packets of forms before you file.

When you have completed the forms in this packet and the Ohio Supreme Court forms you are ready to file at the Clerk of Courts. You will file at the Marion County Family Court, located in the County Administrative Building, 222 W. Center St., Marion, Ohio. The Clerk of Court is located downstairs. We suggest you bring copies when you file. Copies should be made after you have the documents fully completed and notarized. You should bring four (4) copies of the complaint and three (3) copies of every other filing. If you do not have copies made, the Clerk will make copies at a charge to you. We do not know what this charge will be. We suggest you keep a copy of everything you file, and everything the other parent files, with your important papers.

CAUTION: Divorce and custody affect important rights and involve difficult legal concepts. If you can afford an attorney, it would be reckless to proceed without one.

Remember, the other parent's attorney does not represent you and you should not rely upon them for advice or explanations.

By providing these forms, the Legal Aid Society of Columbus and the attorneys who are on its staff have NOT agreed to represent you and WILL NOT be available to answer your questions regarding these forms.

FAMILY COURT PROGRAMS AND SERVICES FOR FAMILIES

During the course of your case, you may have the opportunity to utilize one of the programs or services listed below. All of them are designed to minimize conflict that often occurs in court actions which may result in harm not only to you and the other party involved but to your families and especially your children.

P.E.A.C.E., K.I.D.S., S.U.C.C.E.S.S. — The State of Ohio mandates that all parents with minor children who are terminating their marriage must attend a parent education program about how children are often affected by the break up of their family. The Marion County Family Court has additionally developed programs for children and unmarried parents.

Mediation — An alternative to ugly custody battles, mediation is a program where the parties in conflict sit down with a trained mediator who helps the parties communicate and problem-solve. This allows you to hold the power in determining what is best for your children. Prior to the filing of a Motion to Re-allocate Parental Rights and Responsibilities or a Motion for Contempt of Court, the Court strongly encourages you to take advantage of this less expensive option. A Motion for Mediation form is available at the Clerk's Office. If you have any questions regarding these programs, please ask a staff member.

Management Conference. The Court cannot, however, give you legal advice on how to proceed or how your decisions may affect the outcome of your case.

Dissolution — If you and your spouse have minor children, you both must attend the P.E.A.C.E. program.

Depending on the age of your children, you may be asked to sign the children up for the K.I.D.S. program.

A final hearing must be set no sooner than 30 days and no later than 90 days from the date you file your action. The hearing cannot be set until you BOTH have completed the P.E.A.C.E. program so we encourage you both to attend before you file your action.

Please use the Notice of Hearing form to get your hearing date. It is your responsibility to notify your spouse of the hearing date. The Court will NOT send out any notification. Under Ohio law both parties (husband and wife) must appear at the final hearing. Five days prior to your final hearing you must bring your Decree, Separation Agreement, and if there are minor children, Shared Parenting or Parenting Time Plan, and Child Support Calculation Worksheet.

Post Decree Motions— A pretrial must be set at the time of filing. Please use the same procedure for setting a hearing as listed under the Divorce section. At that pretrial, the Court will explain to you the steps you need to take procedurally regarding your action, but as previously stated, cannot give you legal advice.

A GUIDE TO PRO SE FILINGS

Representing Yourself

Individuals who represent themselves in court actions are referred to as Pro Se Litigants. Pro Se is a Latin term roughly translated as "On one's own behalf".

Representing oneself in the legal process can be a difficult task. The legal system can be extremely complex with the smallest detail causing far-reaching consequences. While the Marion County Family Court understands the difficulties many individuals have in today's economic environment, we urge you to consider the possible consequences of representing yourself.

Although the cost of an attorney may seem expensive, they have normally completed at least 7 years of school after graduating high school; they have been tested and licensed by the State of Ohio; and they are required to continue to take continuing educational courses to maintain that license. In addition attorneys carry liability insurance for damages caused by their errors and any misbehavior can result in disciplinary action including loss of their license.

It is important for you to understand that if you choose to represent yourself, neither the Court nor its employees are allowed by law to give you legal advice on how to get through the legal process. You are held to the same standard as a licensed attorney. This applies both in the courtroom and with your paperwork. Errors may require you to make changes, incur additional costs, or result in a dismissal of your case. Unfortunately, many times an attorney is needed later to correct errors resulting in a greater cost than if they had been hired at the onset.

Please consider the complexity and the level of conflict in your individual case when deciding whether or not to proceed "Pro Se".

If you do decide to proceed "Pro Se", we have provided this pamphlet and an accompanying letter to assist in alerting you to basic requirements for filing actions in the Marion County Family Court.

FILING IN FAMILY COURT

The first step a Pro se litigant should take is to check out the Ohio State Bar Association (<https://www.ohioabar.org>) and click public for information and the Supreme Court of Ohio (www.sconel.state.oh.us) for standard forms for most types of filings. You will also need some local forms which are available from the Clerk's office (Notice of Hearing and if applicable a Poverty Affidavit). The Local Law Library can also be a good resource. Procedures in these types of actions can differ from county to county so it is important to understand the procedure for the county in which you file your action.

In Marion please be aware of the requirements in the case filing listed below.

Divorce — All Divorce cases will be set for an Initial Case Management Conference. Please use the Notice of Hearing form. Once you complete the form, a clerk will get you a hearing date from the Court Scheduler. If the Court Scheduler is unavailable, you may be asked to leave the form at the front desk with a contact number and the scheduler will call you when it is ready. You will then need to pick it up and file it at the Clerk's office.

If there are minor children of the marriage, you are required to attend the P.E.A.C.E. program and your children may be required to attend the K.I.D.S. program. The Court will explain to you the steps you need to take procedurally regarding
