PLANNING COMMISSION / BZA:

D. Maccarone

1. There was a Planning Commission meeting with signs as the topic. A developer is looking to put a sign up at the old Norwood Inn spot, advertising that they have additional space available to rent. The signs on Dean Memorial are coming down. Plans for water and sewage have been drawn and sent to Summit County, and they are waiting on approval.
2. Odessa, which is actually owned by Carvana, would like to put a Carvana sign the same size right below the existing Odessa sign on the front of their building and was approved by the planning commission.
