

Homeownership is on Louisiana's November ballot

AMENDMENT

1

VOTE
YES

Honor the families of those who served

Lets surviving spouses of disabled veterans carry their property-tax exemption to a new home one time.

AMENDMENT

2

VOTE
YES

Fix a quirk that works against taxpayers

Local governments that lower a property-tax rate keep the ability to return to the rate voters approved. It doesn't raise anyone's taxes.

AMENDMENT

6

VOTE
YES

Help seniors age in place

Lets parishes and municipalities offer an additional property-tax exemption to homeowners 65 and older, only if local voters approve it.

AMENDMENT

7

VOTE
YES

Keep the water safe

Allows public funds to replace lead water service lines on the homeowner's side of the property line, not just the public side.

AMENDMENT

8

VOTE
YES

Protect what belongs to Louisianans

Prohibits foreign adversaries and their agents from using Louisiana's expropriation process to force the sale or seizure of private property.

AMENDMENT

9

VOTE
YES

Keep people from being taxed out of their homes

Raises the income limit for the senior and disabled homeowner assessment freeze from $100,000 to $150,000.

AMENDMENT

10

VOTE
YES

Turn blight into homes

Allows property-tax exemptions for blighted or derelict properties that have been rehabilitated, adding housing without adding sprawl.

OUR PRINCIPLES

Property taxes should be predictable, property rights should be secure, and public policy should make it easier, not harder, for families to own a home and stay in it.

EARLY VOTING

Oct. 20–27

ELECTION DAY

Tuesday, Nov. 3

Read the amendments, talk with your neighbors, and when you reach the bottom of the ballot, remember that homeownership is on it too.
