

Trish Leleux received her B.A. in Criminology with a minor in Environmental Science from Auburn University, where she was actively involved in campus life and served as President of The Mariners, the auxiliary to the Navy & Marine ROTC Units. Originally from Ohio, Trish found her heart in the South—living in Savannah, GA for 10 years before putting down roots in Woodworth, Louisiana, where she has called home for the past 21 years.

Trish is the Broker and CEO of The Leleux Group, LLC, and has built a respected reputation as a leading REALTOR® and relocation expert in Central Louisiana. Beyond her professional success, she is deeply committed to community involvement and has a long record of service and leadership. She is a Past President of The Junior League of Alexandria and has served on the boards of Fit Families for Cenla, The Alexandria Museum of Art, Family Counseling Agency, and Turning Point Women's Shelter.

Trish is a current member of the LSUA Foundation Board of Directors, where she proudly serves as Chair of the Board Development and Nominations Committee. She is also a board member of Louisiana Women LEAD and has previously served on the Board of Directors for the Central Louisiana Regional Chamber of Commerce and as Membership Chair for the Alexandria Rotary Club.

In 2023, Trish ran for Louisiana State Representative in District 25, earning a strong 41% of the vote, and proving her commitment to serving Central Louisiana in an even greater capacity. She is a graduate of Leadership Louisiana and was appointed Federal Political Coordinator (FPC) to Congresswoman Julia Letlow by the National Association of REALTORS®.

Her extensive community involvement includes chairing events like the Alexandria Museum of Art's Dragon Boat Races, supporting the American Cancer Society's Power in Purple campaign, and completing a half marathon for St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

Trish's contributions have been widely recognized: she is the recipient of the Hometown Hero Award, Giordano Hope and Peace Award, Junior League of Alexandria Provisional of the Year and Sustainer of the Year Awards, the YWCA Decades of Women 40's Honoree, and was voted Best Real Estate Agent in the Best of Cenla.

Trish and her husband Todd are proud parents of four children. Their oldest daughter is an Auburn University graduate now living in Chicago, their son is a graduate of Georgia Tech who is working in AI and Cybersecurity living in Nashville, their younger daughter is an Honors Student at LSU and the youngest of the four is studying at Hendrix University and swimming for their swim team, the Water Warriors. In her spare time, Trish enjoys traveling, especially to see family in the DC area, visiting her children, and continuing to find new ways to serve the region she loves.
