

Early in the morning when the sun begins to rise, to my heavenly Father I will lift my eyes.

With my heart,
I'll worship Him

and praise Him for the day.

I'll ask Him then to lead me

in all I do and say.

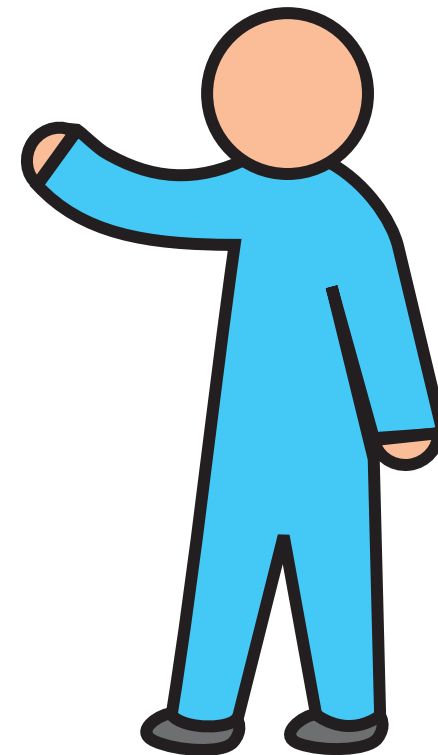

Then again at noontime

as I look into the sky.

I will thank my Father

that He stands nearby.

With my mind,
I'll think upon

His promises to me.

I'll worship

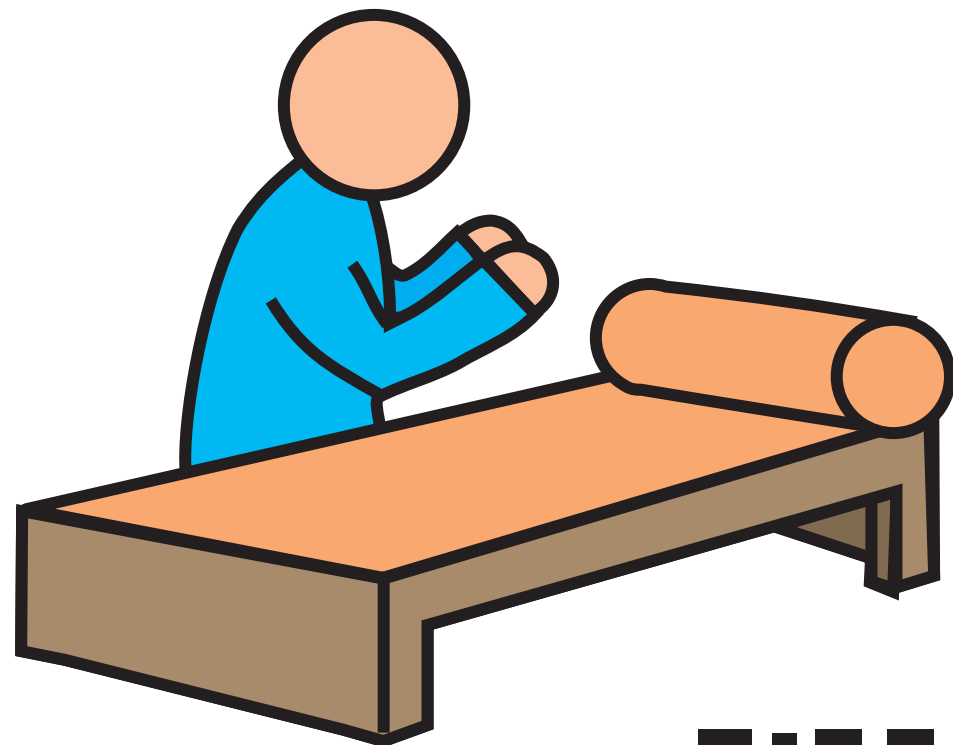

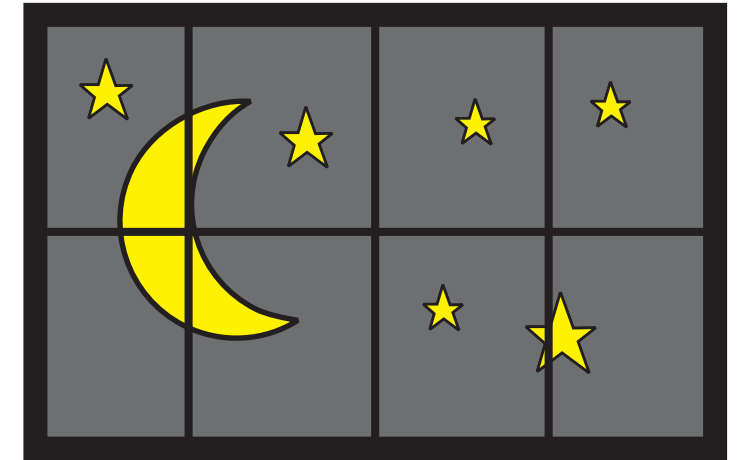

and adore Him

and praise

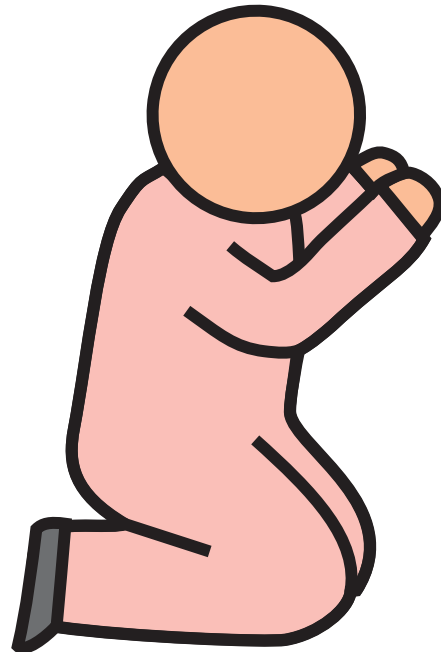

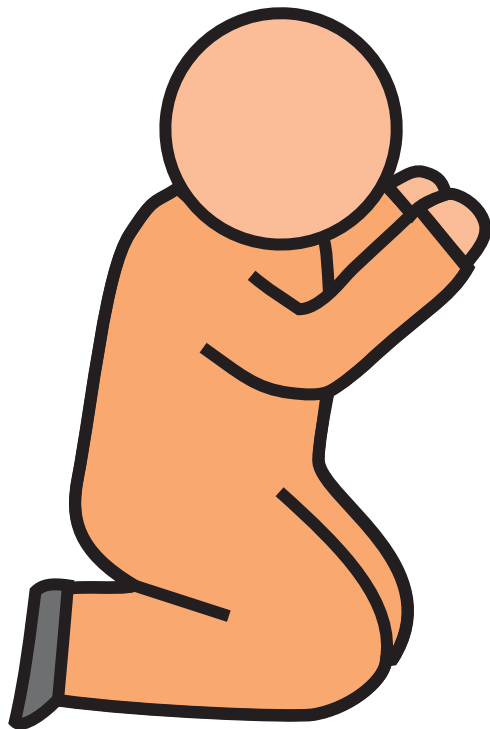

Him constantly.

When the day is over and the night
has come again,

to my heavenly Father
I'll confess my sin.

With my soul
and strength,
I'll pray

that He will have His way,

His kingdom

be within me,

and that I will obey.

A-a-a- men.
