READINGS FOR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21 - Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

God cannot forget the sin of those who cheat the poor.

Amos 8:4-7

Psalm

"Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor."

Psalm 113

Second Reading

Pray for everyone, not just your own.

1 Timothy 2:1-8

Gospel

You cannot be the servant of God and the servant of money.

Luke 16:1-13

Today's first reading, responsorial psalm, and Gospel speak to the pursuit and use of wealth. Amos decries the merchants who cheat the poor, promising that God will not overlook their selfishness. The psalmist promises that the Lord will lift up the poor and lowly. Jesus teaches his disciples to be trustworthy in handling worldly wealth so that they can be trusted with the true wealth that comes from God. Listening to today's selections from Scripture, let us consider our relationship to material wealth.

FAITH IN FOCUS

Exaltation of the Holy Cross

THE CROSS could have become a symbol of shame for Christians. It brought about the death of Jesus Christ. However, faith in the Resurrection made the Cross a symbol of pride. The worst weapon of Jesus' enemies could not overpower him. Through the Cross, Jesus triumphs over death.

Pride in the Cross soon turned to veneration of the Cross. Since no record from the time of the apostles indicates that the Cross of Christ was preserved, zealous Christians later searched for its remains. They had already honored the general location of Calvary and the Sepulcher, so new basilicas were built over those sites under the reign of Constantine in the early fourth century. Around this same time, people believed they had identified relics of the Cross of Christ, and these diffused throughout the Christian world. John Calvin sarcastically noted that if all the splinters of the Cross were gathered together, they would fill a ship—three hundred people could not carry the Cross which one person carried up to Calvary.

It is difficult to verify splinters of the true Cross of Christ. However, legend has it that in 322, Helena, the mother of Constantine, uncovered three Crosses in the excavations for the new basilicas in Jerusalem. She assumed them to be the Crosses of Jesus and the two wrongdoers. Macarius, the bishop of Jerusalem, brought in a dying woman and had her touch the Crosses. The third one cured her, and that Cross was proclaimed the Cross of Christ. It became an object of veneration in Jerusalem until it was stolen in the seventh century, but Heraclius of Constantinople captured and returned it in 629, bringing it into the city, where it was lifted up for all to venerate again. This "exaltation" of the Holy Cross gave us a feast day on September 14 every year.

In recent decades, our calendar changed its title from the Exaltation of the Holy Cross to the Triumph of the Cross and back to Exaltation again. It is still celebrated on September 14 to commemorate both the victory of Christ and the dedication of the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem in 335. As a feast of Christ, when it falls on Sunday, it replaces the regular liturgy for Ordinary Time.

SAINT OF THE MONTH

Bl. Pier Giorgio Frassati (Apr 6, 1901 - Jul 4, 1925)
Feast Day: July 4

Pier was born in Turin, Italy, in 1901. His mother was an artist and his father founded and ran the Italian newspaper La Stampa.

As he was growing up, Pier developed two habits that became part of his everyday life. He went to Mass daily to receive the Eucharist, and he also prayed the Rosary. He never hesitated to share his faith with others.

Pier had a great concern for the poor, even as a child. One day a needy mother with a young son came to the Frassati home to beg for food. Pier noticed that the child was barefoot. He took off his own shoes and gave them to the boy, and then he and his mother fed the poor family. Pier used the money he got as a graduation gift to rent a room for a woman who had been evicted from her apartment because she had no money. He gave away his allowance to the poor, and sometime he chose to walk home from school because he gave the money for his bus or train fare to someone in need.

He joined the St. Vincent de Paul Society as a young man and spent hours on activities that helped the poor and sick. As a mining engineer, he cared deeply about the rights of the miners. He wanted them to have just working conditions and fair wages.

When he was 24, Pier became very ill with polio. Some people said he got this disease from caring for people in the slums of Turin, but Pier saw Jesus in the people he served. In his last days, he whispered the names of people who still needed assistance to his family and friends who gathered at his bedside. He died on July 4, 1925.

Peter was declared "Blessed" in 1990 by Pope John Paul II, who called him a "man of the Beatitudes" and a "joyful apostle of Christ." Many people were surprised that the Vatican created an official portrait of him for his beatification that showed him outdoors, leaning on an ice axe, with one foot on a rock, in honor of his youthful vitality and his love of the mountains.

Pier Giorgio Frassati's canonization is set for Sept. 7, 2025, alongside Blessed Carlo Acutis, by Pope Leo XIV during the Vatican's Jubilee Year of Hope.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED: TRAINING & INVITATION

Become a Eucharistic Minister and serve our Parish Family in a beautiful and sacred way. As a Eucharistic Minister, you'll play a vital role in distributing the Body and Blood of Christ to your fellow parishioners.

This is a perfect ministry for confirmed Catholics who have a deep love for the Eucharist but prefer not to have a public speaking role. Your commitment is only during Mass, and you won't need to arrive early or stay late.

If you're ready to serve with fidelity, reverence, and love, please join us for training at St. John the Evangelist on Saturday, September 20, at 4:15 PM before the vigil mass. This is a great opportunity for new ministers as well as those experienced to get a refresher.

For more information, please get in touch with Lauren Exnicios at lexnicios@gmail.com.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE IN ST. JOHN'S XDC

St. John is looking for a few more XDC employees to staff the after-school program (2:30-6:00 PM), Monday to Friday.

Ages 16+ are welcome to apply, and it would be a great job for older highschoolers or college students. The greatest need is M-F 4:00-6:00 PM.
