Book Group

October 20, 7 PM | St. John Book Club at St. John Parish
CANCELLED New date TBD Next book is Paul Among the People: The Apostle's Life and Reimagined in His Own Time by Sarah Rudden. This author gives a high-level overview of Paul's time and community. According to Goodreads, "It is a common—and fundamental—misconception that Paul told people how to live. Apart from forbidding certain abusive practices, he never gives any precise instructions for living. It would have violated his two main social human freedom and dignity, and the need for people to love one another."

FAITH IN FOCUS

Distractions

"DON'T PRAY at Mass. Pray the Mass."

That piece of advice disoriented many Catholics in the 1960s when the Church invited us to take a different role at Mass. Catholics used to go to church carrying prayer books and rosaries so they could say their own prayers while Mass was going on. They were asked to set aside many of the prayers they used to say privately in order to take part in the prayer going on around them publicly. When you visit someone, you do not immediately pick up the phone to visit someone else. Having a conversation is good, but having the wrong one will distract us. While at Mass we don't avoid prayer; we take part in a specific prayer.

Distractions come in many other forms, too. You will find people reading the bulletin, balancing their checkbook, cutting their nails, and adjusting their makeup during the homily, the Scripture readings, or the Eucharistic Prayer. Occasionally a cellular phone rings. Sometimes it belongs to the priest! If he answers it, you know that distractions have gotten way out of hand.

Sometimes we bring our own distractions. You may come to church with the intention of joining in the prayer, but your mind begins to wander to the events of the day ahead, the memory of the day past, the fears you harbor, the loves you enjoy, the appearance of the church or the behavior of worshippers.

Nonetheless, our common goal is to pray the Mass. It is hard, but two activities will help: preparation at home and concentration at church. At home, you can prepare for Mass by reading the Scriptures beforehand and making time for personal prayer. Then when you arrive at church, the skills you honed at private prayer will enhance your communal prayer. During the Mass, concentrate on the texts you say or sing. Think about the meaning of the words. Listen attentively when one of the ministers speaks. Observe the silences with reverence. Distractions will be fewer when our preparation and concentration grow stronger.

SAINT OF THE MONTH

John Henry Newman

Feast Day: October 9

Canonized: October 13, 2019

Beatified: September 19, 2010

Venerated: January 22, 1991

At the 2010 Mass that proclaimed John Henry Newman "Blessed," some of the hymns sung were written by that very man. But John was not simply a man who wrote hymns. He was someone who inspired others with his life and his writings.

A well-respected priest, theologian, and writer in the Anglican Church, John left that faith when he was 44 years old and became a Catholic in 1845. Because of his contributions in spiritual writing, he was eventually named a cardinal. He helped found the Catholic University of Ireland, which today is University College, Dublin, the country's largest university.

John was born in London, the son of a banker. From a very young age he was interested in learning and studying. He was attracted to the Anglican faith as a teenager and was ordained in 1824. He was a pastor but primarily worked as a university teacher for much of his early life. The more he learned, the more he determined that he needed to be on a different spiritual road. When he decided to become a Catholic, he lost many friends and family members.

After being ordained a Catholic priest, he lectured and continued his writing. John was known as a caring pastor among his working-class parishioners. He served as rector of the Catholic University of Dublin for several years and founded private Catholic schools for boys in England. A number of "Newman Centers" and "Newman Societies" have been created on college campuses all over the world, giving Catholic college students pastoral support.

He died in 1890 and was deemed "Blessed" by Pope Benedict XVI in 2010 in ceremonies in England. The pope paid special tribute to Newman's vision of education, which combined intellectual training, moral discipline, and religious commitment.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26 - Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Sirach 35:12–14, 16–18

The God of justice knows no favorites.

Psalm

Psalm 34

"The Lord hears the cry of the poor."

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6–8, 16–18

I have competed well, I have finished the race.

Gospel

Luke 18:9–14

"O God, be merciful to me a sinner."

Centuries before Christ, Sirach writes that the Lord hears the prayers of the lowly, the poor, the weak, and the oppressed. He assures his readers that God will respond. In the Gospel, Jesus applauds those who humbly acknowledge their sinfulness and ask for God's mercy, declaring that God will exalt them. May we realize our own poverty before the Lord as we sing the refrain to the responsorial psalm, "The Lord hears the cry of the poor."

ASSISTED SUICIDE: THE ETHICS, THE LAW,
AND THE DANGERS Oct. 23 | 12:00 - 1:00 pm

Assisting in other people's suicides violates the universal moral principle against deliberately helping to take innocent human life, and the medical profession's fundamental norm "First of all, do no harm." As laws are changed to remove initial safeguards against abuse and coercion, the reality of a "slippery slope" toward broader killing has become clear. Richard Doerflinger, former Executive Director of the Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities at the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, will delve into our Catholic response.
