PARISH FAMILY HIGHLIGHTS

A SPECIAL CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION AT ST. BENEDICT PARISH

Corpus Christi was celebrated in all three of our parishes as we came together to honor Jesus' presence in the Holy Eucharist.

At St. Benedict Parish, a special Eucharistic procession took place after Mass celebrated by Fr. Nkolombidzo. Parishioners walked together in prayer and song as they followed the Blessed Sacrament, showing their faith and love for Christ.

To watch the recording of the Mass and Eucharistic procession, please visit: <https://www.facebook.com/share/v/14cpPFDSv7j/>.

On May 29–31, Fr. Parrish, two members of our Faith Formation team, and six parishioners and ministry leaders attended the Activate Conference in Vancouver, B.C., hosted by Catholic Christian Outreach. The conference focused on growing closer to Jesus through prayer and learning simple, practical ways to share our faith with others.

By sending parishioners and ministry leaders to events like this, our Parish Family is helping equip people to invite others into a relationship with Christ and support them in their journey of faith.

May all who attended be guided and blessed as they put their learning into action and continue serving our Parish Family.

Thank you to all who joined us for the Listening Session hosted by Fr. Parrish!

Thank you to everyone who joined our Parish Family Listening Session on June 4. About 35 parishioners participated as Fr. Parrish introduced the mission of the Church and reflected on how we are called to see, judge, and act in response to our Parish Family data.

Participants shared valuable insights on the opportunities ahead and the challenges we are called to address together. This was just the first phase of the process, with additional listening sessions planned for September. Stay tuned for details. We hope to see you there!

LORD, HEAR OUR PRAYER...

Please remember the following people who are ill, homebound, or need your prayers this week: Marnie Ahern, Linda Amsden, Akeem Arana, Michael Eugene James Chiles & his surviving wife & family, Ritchell Cunanan, Anne Fuller, Louise Gervais, Brian Gough, Rich Huntsman, Tom Jepson, Lucy McGovern, Jeffry Myers, Joel Ocampo, Jennifer Parrish, Patricia Patterson, Bill Quackenbush, Kate Quinones, Lou Ayres Salumbides, Abby Simpson, Shannon Weiler, and Lillian Yamamoto. For those who have died, including MaryAnn Ashe, Rina Bosi, and Dave Harrington, that they may rest in the healing embrace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, we pray to the Lord. For Armed Forces personnel throughout the world, that they come home safely to their families, we pray to the Lord.

Note: The prayer list is updated every first week of the month. To keep your request active, please resubmit it each month. To request a prayer, please call the Faith Formation Office at 206-632-0843 or use the QR code or this link: <https://bit.ly/PF14Prayer>.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Rina Bosi - Friday, June 19, 11 AM funeral Mass at St. John with Rosary at 10:30 AM; Reception to follow in Egan Hall.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 21 - Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Jeremiah 20:10-13
The Lord will rescue the beloved from their persecutors.

Psalm Psalm 69
"Lord, in your great love, answer me."

Second Reading Romans 5:12-15
By grace, the gracious gift of God's Son, Jesus Christ, has saved us all from sin.

Gospel Matthew 10:26-33
There is no fear when God's love is received as a precious gift.

Last Sunday we heard Jesus choose the disciples whom he would send out to proclaim the kingdom of God. Today he calls upon them to go out and proclaim it from the housetops. But Jeremiah sets the tone for Jesus' instructions when he confesses his fear of those who would persecute him. Jesus reassures his disciples as Jeremiah reassures himself, that God will protect those who carry out the Lord's work. May God's word build our confidence in God's care and fidelity.

FAITH IN FOCUS

Lauda Sion

LAUDA SION is the Latin title of the Sequence for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, formerly known as the feast of Corpus Christi.

A sequence is a hymn before the Gospel that develops the theme of a particular day. Throughout history, the liturgy has included many sequences. Today, there are only a few, and some of them, including Lauda Sion, are optional.

The melody of this hymn is even older than the words. The words were composed by Thomas Aquinas (+1274), at the request of Pope Urban IV, who set the Feast of Corpus Christi on the universal calendar. The lengthy text helps the community announce what we believe about the Eucharist.

The hymn opens with praise to Christ for the Eucharist. “Sion” refers to the Church, the New Jerusalem. “Lauda” is the command to praise or laud.

The text then professes our belief: The Eucharist replaces the former way of offering sacrifice. The Church continues this sacrifice at the request of Christ. Faith, not sight, believes that bread becomes his body, and wine becomes his blood. Christ is whole under either form. Eating does not break Christ apart; rather, it unifies thousands of believers. People eat and drink their judgment—salvation or doom.

The final few verses may be sung alone, as a shorter version of the sequence: The food of angels is given to pilgrims. The Eucharist was foreshadowed in the sacrifice of Isaac, the Paschal Lamb and the manna in the desert.

The hymn closes with a prayer that Jesus might grant the singers a place at the heavenly table with the saints.
