PARISH FAMILY HIGHLIGHTS

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS CELEBRATED AT ST. ALPHONSUS

On June 12, parishioners gathered at St. Alphonsus Church for a special Mass honoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Following the celebration of the Eucharist, everyone participated in a time of Eucharistic Devotion.

Everyone is encouraged to pick up a Morning Offering prayer card available in the vestibules of our churches and make this beautiful prayer a part of their daily routine. By offering each day to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we unite our prayers, works, joys, and sufferings with Christ and grow in love and devotion to Him.

RECENT HIGHLIGHTS

- On May 17, Parish Family Data Snapshot, which includes key information about our pastoral area, demographics, and parish resources, was shared to all. Read it here: bit.ly/PF14DataSnapshot.
- On May 23, Fr. Parrish hosted a Data Night, which was an opportunity for everyone to learn more about Parish Family data, clarify questions and concerns, and discuss ways to better support the mission and ministries of our parish community.
- On June 4, Fr. Parrish hosted the initial Listening Session focused on identifying opportunities and challenges.
- On June 11, the Pastoral Leadership Council held its monthly meeting and began planning for the full Parish Family Listening Sessions to be held in September. The council discussed potential questions, approaches, and scheduling.

The Parish Office at St. John and St. Benedict will close at noon on Fridays during the summer.

OUR PASTORAL COUNCILS AT WORK

Please keep our council members in your prayers as they serve and discern how best to support the mission of our Parish Family.

READINGS FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 28 - Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Genuine hospitality is highly praised.

2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

Saint Paul teaches the Romans that the Resurrection means that we may all live in “newness of life.” We hear of this newness of life in God’s word today.

Psalm

“For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.”

Psalm 89

Newness of life is offering generous hospitality to the stranger. Newness of life is expecting a baby.

Second Reading

We must consider ourselves dead to sin.

Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Newness of life is praising the goodness of the Lord. Newness of life is offering a cup of cold water to one of the Lord’s disciples. Newness of life is even losing one’s life for Jesus’ sake. As we listen to scripture, let us listen for how our lives are made new by the Lord.

Gospel

Whoever does not take up the cross is not worthy of Christ.

Matthew 10:37-42

Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love. The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

Sancta Vita

“By associating with the lowest ranks of society (cf. Mt 25:31-46), ‘Jesus brought the great novelty of recognizing the dignity of every person, especially those who were considered ‘unworthy.’ This new principle in human history – which emphasizes that individuals are even more ‘worthy’ of our respect and love when they are weak, scorned, or suffering, even to the point of losing the human ‘figure’ – has changed the face of the world. It has given life to institutions that take care of those who find themselves in disadvantaged conditions, such as abandoned infants, orphans, the elderly who are left without assistance, the mentally ill, people with incurable diseases or severe deformities, and those living on the streets.” (Dilexit nos, 170)

- Pope Francis, 2025-10-24

FAITH IN FOCUS

Feast

A FEAST is a day of special significance on the Roman Catholic Church calendar. Precisely, a feast does not rank as high as a solemnity, but it does rank above a memorial. In everyday speech, we use the word to cover almost any special day, such as “the feast of St. Valentine” or “the feast of St. Patrick.” However, the official calendar does not include these in its special category of “feasts.”

Feasts include some special events in the lives of Jesus and Mary (Birth of Mary, Visitation, Holy Innocents, Presentation, Baptism of the Lord, and Transfiguration); days associated with apostles, evangelists, and archangels; and days of historical significance honoring the deacon and martyr Lawrence, the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome (John Lateran), and the first display of the relics of the Cross (Exaltation of the Holy Cross). In the United States, the celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe is observed as a feast.

Locally, feasts are observed for the principal patron of the diocese, the anniversary of the cathedral’s dedication, the patron of a region or wider territory, and other days proper to an individual Church or religious order. So, for example, if your cathedral is named for St. Patrick, March 17 is observed as a solemnity there and as a feast in the parish churches of the diocese. But it is an optional memorial in other dioceses.

Mass on a feast day includes the Glory to God and special readings from the lectionary. When certain feasts fall on a Sunday (Presentation, Baptism of the Lord, Transfiguration, John Lateran, and Exaltation of the Cross), they replace the Sunday liturgy. Otherwise, feasts are never anticipated at Mass the night before.
