A HOLY DAY HONORING OUR BLESSED MOTHER

Dear friends in Christ, Friday evening, August 14, and Saturday morning August 15, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Assumption. The Vigil Mass for Saturday evening, August 15, is the regular Sunday Mass and not a Holy Day Mass.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The Assumption leads us to contemplate the new life the Lord holds out to all who with Mary make their “yes” to God. It is a feast of great joy and hope for all of us. Last year, Pope Leo reflected on this mystery in Homily for the feast. Here is an excerpt of it:

The Solemnity of the Today is not Sunday, yet we celebrate in another way the Paschal Mystery of Jesus, which changed the course of history. In Mary of Nazareth, we recognize our own history: the history of the Church, immersed in the common lot of humanity. By taking flesh in her, the God of life — the God of freedom — has conquered death. Yes, today we contemplate how God overcomes death — yet never without us. His is the Kingdom, but ours is the “yes” to his love that can change everything. On the Cross, Jesus freely uttered that “yes” which would strip death of its power — the death that still spreads wherever our hands crucify and our hearts remain imprisoned by fear and mistrust. On the Cross, trust prevailed; so did love, which sees what is yet to come; and forgiveness triumphed.

Mary was there, united with her Son. In our day, we are like Mary whenever we do not flee, whenever we make Jesus’ “yes” our own. That “yes” still lives and resists death in the martyrs of our time, in witnesses of faith and justice, of gentleness and peace. Thus this day of joy becomes also a day that calls us to choose — how and for whom we shall live.

The liturgy of this feast of the Assumption offers us the Gospel passage on the Visitation. Saint Luke recorded in this passage a decisive moment in Mary’s vocation. It is beautiful to recall that day, as we celebrate the crowning moment of her life. Every human story, even that of the Mother of God, is brief on this earth and comes to an end. Yet nothing is lost. When a life ends, its uniqueness shines even more clearly. The Magnificat, which the Gospel places on the lips of the young Mary, now radiates the light of all her days. One single day — the day she met her cousin Elizabeth — contains the seed of every other day, of every other season.

And words are not enough; a song is needed, one that continues to be sung in the Church “from generation to generation” (Lk 1:50), at the close of every day. The surprising fruitfulness of barren Elizabeth confirmed Mary in her trust; it anticipated the fruitfulness of her “yes,” which extends to the fruitfulness of the Church and of all humanity whenever God’s renewing Word is welcomed. That day, two women met in faith, then stayed together for three months to support each other, not just in practical matters but in a new way of reading history.

And so, dear brothers and sisters, the Resurrection enters our world even today. The words and choices of death may seem to prevail, but the life of God breaks through our despair through concrete experiences of fraternity and new gestures of solidarity. Prior to being our final destiny, the Resurrection transforms — in soul and body — our dwelling on earth. Mary’s song, Magnificat, strengthens the hope of the humble, the hungry, the faithful servants of God. These are the men and women of the Beatitudes who, even in tribulation, already see the invisible: the mighty cast down from their thrones, the rich sent away empty, the promises of God fulfilled. Such experiences should be found in every Christian community. They may seem impossible, but God’s Word continues to be brought to light. When bonds are born, with which we confront evil with good and death with life, we see that nothing is impossible with God (cf. Lk 1:37). POPE LEO

May Mary’s total fidelity to her son, help us to listen to him, to follow in his way, and to attain a place in heaven with him.

Please join me in welcoming Bishop Schuster to St Jude this weekend. He is filling in this week while Fr. Raphael is away. We are so grateful for his presence, ministry and service.

Blessings on your week!
Fr Johnson

"I thought not of buildings or structures, but of the people of our diocese; the families carrying burdens too heavy for words. In moments like these, the Church is called to do what she has always done: to stand with those who suffer, to pray without ceasing, and to remind one another that even amid ashes, Christ has not abandoned His people."

SPECIAL COLLECTION Catholic Home Missions

Next weekend, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Collection. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the United States are considered home mission territory because they are unable to fund the essential pastoral work needed in their communities. These dioceses face challenges due to priest shortages, lack of funds, remote geography, or impoverished parishes. Through annual grants, the Catholic Home Mission Collection funds catechesis, seminarian education, lay ministry training, Hispanic ministry and other pastoral programs. As a result of parishioners' generosity, Catholic Home Missions impacts the lives of nearly nine million Catholics in the United States. Please prayerfully consider giving to this collection. STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1 KGS 19:9A, 11-13A; PS 85:9-14; ROM 9:1-5; MT 14:22-33

Today's Gospel from Matthew reminds us to trust the Lord even when it seems He is not answering our prayers.

God desires to lead us to the joy of heaven and eternal life with Him. To prepare us for that day, He calls us to grow in faith and to live each day as a grateful response to His goodness. In other words, He is forming us into saints. This is what the stewardship way of life is meant to accomplish. At times that process is difficult. Often, it stretches us beyond our comfort.

Jesus certainly challenged the Canaanite woman in today's Gospel.

She cried out to Him on behalf of her daughter, who was tormented by a demon. How did Jesus respond to this desperate mother's plea? At first, He "did not say a word in answer to her." Undeterred, she continued to seek Him, and He continued to test her faith.

She responded with such remarkable trust that Jesus proclaimed, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." Imagine hearing those words spoken to us by our Lord. There could be no greater affirmation of a life lived in faithful discipleship.

The stewardship way of life will test our trust in God at times. But those are often the moments when He is doing His greatest work within us. Let us persevere in faith, trusting that His plan is always leading us toward the joy He has prepared for us.

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF VELANKANNI

September 13, 2026

Mark your calendars and join us we honor Our Lady of Velankanni, our beloved Mother. Known as the Lady of Good Health and often called the Lourdes of the East, her shrine in Tamil Nadu, India, draws pilgrims from all walks of life—testifying to her universal love and miraculous intercession. Celebrating Our Blessed Mother has become a cherished tradition at St. Jude, and this year's feast promises to be especially meaningful. We warmly encourage you to participate in this beautiful multicultural devotion, which incorporates traditions from around the world and reflects the diverse ways Mary is honored across cultures. Your presence will help make this celebration a true expression of unity and faith.
