POPE LEO AT HIPPO

WHERE ST. AUGUSTINE WAS BISHOP

Dear friends in Christ,

One of the most significant stops on Pope Leo's recent apostolic visit to Africa was in Algeria, to Annaba, the site of the ancient city of Hippo. It is here that St. Augustine ministered as bishop. It is a place of great significance to Pope Leo, as so much of his life was spent as an Augustinian friar. You can tell Pope Leo's great affection for St. Augustine in his homilies, which are filled with references to this great saint's teaching. So, you can well imagine what an impact that visit had upon our Holy Father. So today, I offer for our reflection, the part of the homily Pope Leo gave there, in the Basilica of St. Augustine:

Dear brothers and sisters,

The divine Word pervades history and renews it through the human voice of the Savior. Today we listen to the Gospel, the Good News for all time, in this Basilica in Annaba dedicated to Saint Augustine, Bishop of the ancient city of Hippo. Over the centuries, the names of the places that welcome us have changed, but the saints continue to serve as our patrons and faithful witnesses of a connection to the land that comes from heaven. It is precisely this dynamic that the Lord revealed at night to Nicodemus: this is the strength that Christ instills in the weakness of his faith and the tenacity of his search.

Sent by the Spirit of God, which "you do not know where it comes from or where it goes" (Jn3:8), Jesus is a special guest for Nicodemus. In fact, he calls him to a new life, entrusting to his interlocutor — and to us as well — a surprising task: "You must be born from above" (v. 7). Such is the invitation for every man and woman who seeks salvation! Jesus' invitation gives rise to the mission of the whole Church, and consequently to the Christian community in Algeria: to be born again from above, that is, from God. In this perspective, faith overcomes earthly hardships and the Lord's grace makes the desert blossom. Yet the beauty of this exhortation also brings with it a challenge, which the Gospel calls us to face together. As a matter of fact, Christ's words contain all the force of a command: you must be born again from above! Such a command rings in our ears as a feat that would be impossible. However, when we listen attentively to the one who gives the order, we come to understand that this is neither a harsh imposition nor a constraint, and much less a condemnation to failure. On the contrary, the obligation expressed by Jesus is a gift of freedom for us, because it reveals an unexpected possibility: we can be born anew from above thanks to God. We should do so, then, according to his loving will, which desires to renew humanity by calling us to a communion of life that begins with faith. While Christ invites us to renew our lives completely, he also gives us the strength to do so. Saint Augustine attests to this well when praying in this way, "Give, O Lord, what you command and command what you will" (Confessions, X, 29, 40).

Therefore, when we ask ourselves how a future of justice, peace, harmony and salvation will be possible, we must remember that we are asking God the same question that Nicodemus asked: can our story truly change? We are so weighed down by problems, hardships and tribulations! Can we truly start our lives over again?

Yes! The Lord's response, so full of love, fills our hearts with hope. No matter how weighed down we are by pain or sin: the crucified One carries all these burdens with us and for us. No matter how discouraged we are by our own weaknesses: it is precisely then that God manifests his strength, the God who has raised Christ from the dead in order to give life to the world. Each one of us can experience the freedom of new life that comes from faith in the Redeemer. Once again, Saint Augustine offers us an example of this: we revere him for his conversion even more than for his wisdom. In this rebirth, providentially accompanied by the tears of his mother, Saint Monica, he found himself, exclaiming: "I could not therefore exist, could not exist at all, O my God, unless you were in me. Or should I not rather say, that I could not exist unless I were in you" (Confessions, I, 2). Christians are truly born from above, regenerated by God as brothers and sisters of Jesus...

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

We have just kicked off the Annual Catholic Appeal, which is a really important campaign to our Archdiocese and our parishes. It is the way that the parishes of the Archdiocese fund those ministries we cannot do individually, and need to do together as a larger Church in Western Washington. The Annual Catholic Appeal funds ministries such the recruitment and training of future priests and deacons, hospital ministry at our larger regional hospitals, campus ministry at a number of our universities, CYO camping, as well as day to day essential services that we as parishes depend upon.

Your support is crucial to the success of the Archdiocese and its many ministries. So, I invite you to make a pledge today toward the Appeal. Your gift can be given throughout the year or all at once. How much should you pledge? Obviously, that would depend upon your circumstances, but certainly it should be in proportion to the way God has blessed you. Last year the average pledge from our parishes was around $625. Whatever the amount, your gift will make a tremendous difference. Remember too, many employers will match the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please pray about this request and make a pledge to support these important ministries. We would be grateful if you would return the envelope or make your gift on-line at www.archseattle.org/giveaca. Thank you! May Christ continue to bless you and your families with his presence and his love!

COMBINED BULLETIN

As we take steps to become one parish family, our bulletin may look a little different from week to week as we work to combine information from all three parish communities into one shared format. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this transition. It may take a few weeks to settle into a style that is clear and easy to navigate for everyone. We are grateful for your support as we continue building something new together!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER ACTS 6:1-7; PS 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19; 1 PT 2:4-9; JN 14:1-12

The readings on this fifth Sunday of Easter present us with themes of dwelling places and home. As Christian stewards, we recognize that this world is not our permanent home. We are pilgrims here, making our way through the stewardship way of life toward our true home — heaven.

Yet, as we journey toward heaven, we are called to make our dwelling here — whether in a household of one or a full and busy family — a true “domestic church.” In other words, the stewardship way of life begins long before we set foot on parish grounds. Stewardship starts at home. It begins with our families — our domestic churches.

The domestic church plays a key role in our sanctification because it is the primary place where we learn and practice selfless love of others. In our Gospel passage from John, Jesus speaks of heaven as a home filled with dwelling places. “In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?” This is a beautiful image of the glory that awaits us and the personal love our Lord has for us — preparing a place for each one of us who remains faithful to Him.

Let us respond to this great love by becoming good stewards of our earthly dwellings, making our homes true “domestic churches” where we honor God through prayer, care for one another, and generous hospitality.

Let us never forget that stewardship starts at home!

2026 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

LOVE AND JOY

Archbishop Etienne reminds us: "Together in faith, we share the love and joy of Jesus Christ with others. Now, more than ever it is important to renew our mission of helping others encounter Jesus, accompany one another, and live the joy of the Gospel." His message underscores the vital role of the Annual Catholic Appeal and the profound difference your generosity makes in strengthening local Catholic community. Your contribution helps minister to those in need, build the Catholic faith within our local communities, and directly supports our parish. Please take time prayerfully consider how you and your family can participate. Use the envelope in the pew, scan the QR code, or visit archseattle.org/giveaca to give today. Let us encourage each other to help make our ministries a success!

- St Jude parish goal is $230,000. The average gift from last year was $745. St Jude's parish project will be replacing the carpet in the parish hall classrooms.
- Holy Innocents parish goal is $65,000. The average gift last year was $544. Holy Innocent's parish project will be a new portable sound system for the hall and events on the plaza.
- St Anthony parish goal is $12,000. St Anthony's average gift last year was $488. St. Anthony's parish rebate will go towards church maintenance.
