Northwest Catholic

The Northwest Catholic Collection will be taken up next week at all Masses. Your support ensures that Northwest Catholic magazine is delivered six times a year, free of charge, to every registered Catholic household in Western Washington, and that its website, NWCatholic.org, is updated every day with local, national and international Catholic news. Northwest Catholic is an essential evangelization tool in the archdiocese, providing local stories of faith, inspiring columns from our bishops and information about what's happening in the archdiocese. Thank you for your support of this ministry. You can donate online at www.NWCatholic.org

It's January & Time to Update Your Pledge

Please Note: We have a New Online Giving Platform

Let's face it — not too many of us carry cash or a checkbook around with us anymore so we've made the decision to upgrade our online giving platform to make it easier to give to Holy Innocents. We are excited to announce that we are now using Pushpay as our new online giving platform. Pushpay is an industry leader known for creating an easy, secure way for you to manage your own giving from the convenience of a mobile device.

Those who donate online will need to go into the Online Giving page to set up a new Pushpay account. AND cancel your VANCO account. Instructions can be found at our Website at www.holyinn.org or click the QR Code here:

Help Needed: Pantry Shopper

We are in need of someone to "shop" for the pantry a couple times a month. Janice provides a list on Wednesday and our shoppers have until Sunday afternoon to shop and deliver the items to the church. Shopping takes about 2 hours of your time. Reach out to our pantry coordinator Janice Asmus at pantry@holynn.org for more information.

Catholic Relief Services Chocolate Sale

Surprise your valentine with some delicious Fair Trade chocolate!

Our CRS Ambassadors will be in the Narthex after the masses next Sunday February 4th selling Fair Trade Chocolate Bars. Proceeds go to supporting CRS work around the world.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

January 28, 2024

Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

DT 18:15-20; PS 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9; 1 COR 7:32-35; MK 1:21-28

Our readings today remind us of God's authority.

As we reflect on our Gospel, we recognize that God possesses all authority and that we want to give Him all authority. Jesus was teaching in the synagogue on the Sabbath. All were fixed on His words and astonished at what He had to say. Suddenly everyone's attention shifted to a man with an unclean spirit who began to question Jesus and His authority. Jesus responded, "Quiet, come out of him!" and removed the evil spirit from the man. All were amazed at the healing of this man.

Life can sometimes look like the synagogue in Capernaum. We are living as disciples of Christ when we suddenly recognize evil around us — through events in our lives, temptations we are enduring, or by falling into sin. It can distract us, consume our attention, or even cause us to despair. In these moments of trial, we must remember the Healer in our Gospel today. Recall His words, "Quiet, come out of Him!" Jesus has the power and authority over evil, for He has conquered sin and death. He also has the power and authority over us. And when we invite Him to have that authority, He will heal us and help us persevere.

Today, we are reminded that God is in control and that we want Him to be in control. He is the loving Healer Who will work miracles for us if we give Him the authority to do so.

Coming This Lent

Five small group sessions of prayer and reflections focused on several of the Scripture readings for the Lenten Sundays in Year B.

Sign ups start next Sunday and groups begin the week of 2/18

Baptism

The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism for infants is scheduled after the baptismal preparation for the parents is completed. Baptisms are normally celebrated at a Sunday mass in the parish where the parents live. Adults (7 years or older) seeking baptism or confirmation are invited to inquire at the parish office for information about adult preparation.

Marriage

Couples seeking marriage in the church are asked to contact the parish at least four months in advance of their proposed wedding date. For those with prior marriages, additional time may be required. Marriages are celebrated in the parish in which one of the Catholic parties lives.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession)

Private confession is available every Friday evening 6:00 pm — 6:45 pm.

Pastoral Care for the Sick and Dying In the case of serious illness or failing health due to old age, parishioners should ask the church for the Sacrament of Anointing. This sacrament is administered by a priest and is celebrated by appointment as necessary. When a parishioner is near death, they should receive Holy Communion, called Viaticum (food for the journey). This sacrament can be administered by a priest or deacon or Eucharistic minister.
