Mission Statement

The Catholic Community of Holy Innocents Church is called to continue the mission of Jesus Christ by:

- Enhancing Spiritual Growth;
- Reaching out and serving those in need;
- Educating our community in Christ's teaching
- Creating and maintaining a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

Partners in the Gospel Thank You!

The proposed family grouping for Holy Innocents is a family made up of:

- Holy Innocents
- St. Jude in Redmond
- St. Anthony in Carnation

The three-week public input phase is finished. Thank you to all who participated in an in-person listening session or gave your feedback through the online portal.

At this point, the feedback has been submitted and the Partners in the Gospel steering committee is reading and reviewing every comment that was submitted to prepare a synthesis for the Archbishop. Please continue to pray for the Partners in the Gospel Initiative. We will learn in January the final family groupings.

Timeline

Adult Confirmation Class

We are currently gathering names of adults who are interested in being confirmed next February. Once we know who is interested, we will set the time and day for the 6 class session. Contact Debby@holynn.org to sign up for the class

World Mission Sunday

World Mission Sunday is celebrated the world over.

Remembering that we are baptized and sent as a Universal Church, this collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to the most vulnerable communities. Envelopes are in the pews or you can donate online at our website. www.holynn.org

STEWARDSHIP: A WAY OF LIFE TIME. TALENT. TREASURE.

FROM A HEART OF GRATITUDE
WE GIVE OUR TREASURE

You can make a donation to either our operations or building campaign through our online giving platform found at our website. www.holyinn.org. Thank you for your ongoing generosity toward supporting our parish. For information or support reach out to: Sabrina@holynn.org

It's Here: HIYA (Holy Innocents Youth Ambassadors) For Teens Grades 6-12

Parents, Glen and Petra Shafer, will be coordinating a group of teens and parents to start up our Youth Group again here at Holy Innocents.

The group is meeting this Sunday October 22nd 7-9pm down in the parish hall, and will meet most Sunday nights from then on. Meetings will include a mix of social, spiritual, & service activities, praise & worship nights, and discussion groups.

Are you interested in being on our communication list? Want more information? Reach out to Debby@holynn.org with your email and cell phone number and we will add you to the list.

Baptism

The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism for infants is scheduled after the baptismal preparation for the parents is completed. Baptisms are normally celebrated at a Sunday mass in the parish where the parents live. Adults (7 years or older) seeking baptism or confirmation are invited to inquire at the parish office for information about adult preparation.

Marriage

Couples seeking marriage in the church are asked to contact the parish at least four months in advance of their proposed wedding date. For those with prior marriages, additional time may be required. Marriages are celebrated in the parish in which one of the Catholic parties lives.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession)

Private confession is available every Friday evening 6:00 pm — 6:45 pm.

Pastoral Care for the Sick and Dying In the case of serious illness or failing health due to old age, parishioners should ask the church for the Sacrament of Anointing. This sacrament is administered by a priest and is celebrated by appointment as necessary. When a parishioner is near death, they should receive Holy Communion, called Viaticum (food for the journey). This sacrament can be administered by a priest or deacon or Eucharistic minister.

What does the Food Pantry Need this Week?

Canned Meals

The weather is turning cooler and we are in a lull before the holiday food drives begin in the food pantry so this week, than you for picking up an extra canned meal or two on your next grocery trip and delivering it here to the parish That would be items like chili, pork and beans, Raviolis, Spaghetti or plain old cans of soup of all kinds.

You can always find items that are needed by going to the pantry webpage at our website.:

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

IS 25:6-10A; P S23:1-6; PHIL 4:12-14, 19-20; MT 21:1-14 or 22:1-10

How easy it is, especially in these times, to be consumed by the cares and distractions of the “here and now,” forgetting about what matters most — living for the Kingdom of Heaven. The stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the virtuous use of our Time, Talent, and Treasure, allows us to embrace daily life and all its demands — with eternity in mind..

How do we keep focused on the Kingdom of Heaven? St. Paul shares his secret for an eternity-driven life. In our Second Reading from his Letter to the Philippians, Paul says, “I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance. In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well fed and going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need.” In other words, Paul has learned to live the stewardship way of life.

What is the secret? It is this: “I can do all things in him who strengthens me.” How? Through this: “My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.” It is so simple! But it is not easy. It takes both courage and humility to live this way. God will supply these to us if we ask.
