Looking for our Holy Gardeners

Five Reasons to become a Holy Gardener at Holy Innocents by Gail Dimock.

#1. Get in Touch with Nature"

Gardening is restorative and our bodies respond positively to environments that are favorable to us. By being a Holy Gardener, you can create an environment that gives you satisfaction and provides beauty in one of our 30+ gardens.

Sign up at the table at the back of the church or Contact Gail at Gardens@Holyinn.org or call the office at 425-788-1400.

Coming Next Week: Reason #2. Exercise!

Baptism

The celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism for infants is scheduled after the baptismal preparation for the parents is completed. Baptisms are normally celebrated at a Sunday mass in the parish where the parents live. Adults (7 years or older) seeking baptism or confirmation are invited to inquire at the parish office for information about adult preparation.

Marriage

Couples seeking marriage in the church are asked to contact the parish at least four months in advance of their proposed wedding date. For those with prior marriages, additional time may be required. Marriages are celebrated in the parish in which one of the Catholic parties lives.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession)

Private confession is available every Friday evening 6:00 — 6:45 pm.

Pastoral Care for the Sick and Dying In the case of serious illness or failing health due to old age, parishioners should ask the church for the Sacrament of Anointing. This sacrament is administered by a priest and is celebrated by appointment as necessary. When a parishioner is near death, they should receive Holy Communion, called Viaticum (food for the journey). This sacrament can be administered by a priest or deacon or Eucharistic minister.

Food Pantry Receives a Rice Bowl Grant

Did you know that part of your Rice Bowl Donations Stay right here in the Diocese of Seattle? Because of your generosity our food pantry was the recipient of a $500 Rice Bowl Grant. In addition, we received an additional $500 to support the summer vegetable gardens outside the church.

You can keep the generosity flowing both here at home and aboard by returning your Rice Bowl Donations to the baskets at the doors of the church or by visiting our website and donating there.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection

Second Sunday of Easter (or Sunday of Divine Mercy)

ACTS 2:42-47; PS 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24; 1 PT 1:3-9; JN 20:19-31

The Christian steward approaches life with an "Easter vision," rooted in gratitude for the salvation our Lord has won for us through His death and Resurrection. Today's readings on this Divine Mercy Sunday remind us that this vision is meant to shape our daily lives and that we can place complete trust in the mercy of God to lead us, step by step, toward heaven.

It can be difficult to keep our focus on heaven when earthly concerns — job stress, family struggles, health problems and political division — press in around us. At times, we can become like the Apostle Thomas in today's Gospel, struggling to believe amid disappointment and uncertainty. Absent when Jesus first appeared to the other Apostles after the Resurrection, Thomas refused to accept their testimony that they had "seen the Lord."

He insisted that he would not believe unless he placed his finger into the nail marks and his hand into Christ's side. Yet Thomas' doubts did not repel our Lord — they drew Him near in an extraordinary way. Jesus saw beyond the doubt to the pain beneath it. He did not condemn Thomas, but calmed his fears and invited him to touch His Sacred Wounds. What amazing grace.

When we are tempted to doubt, we need only seek the Lord — in prayer, in the sacraments and through the encouragement of our Christian community. Just as He did for Thomas, our Lord will mercifully restore our Easter vision and fill us with His joy and peace.

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH FAMILY!

St Jude | Holy Innocents

We have become one parish family and will work together to spread the Good News of Christ

Coming In May: A New Bulletin Format.

In response to the Partner In the Gospel initiative, the bulletins of St. Anthony, St. Jude and Holy Innocents will be combined into a single Parish Family bulletin starting in May.

The new bulletin deadline will be on Thursdays by 5pm. This is for the Sunday after the upcoming Sunday. That means that the bulletin deadline is 10 days before print.

All bulletin submissions will need to be submitted in final form to Norma Estoy at norma@stjude-redmond.org. They should be no bigger than 3"x3". For more information please email Norma at St. Jude
