SPOKANE FIRE RELIEF EFFORTS

Dear friends in Christ,

The terrible fires in Spokane have devastated the lives of so many, destroying homes, uprooting families, and placing so many in danger. I think we all been moved by this great tragedy and want to help. First, we need to pray for all those affected - especially for those who have lost their homes, for the fire fighters and first responders, and for an end to the fires which are still very much threatening many more. At the same time, we need to help, in a concrete way, all those living through this disaster. St. Paul tells us when one part of the body suffers, we all suffer. I am asking you to be generous in supporting the relief efforts. This weekend, we are taking a second collection to support the effort of Catholic Charities of Eastern Washington provide emergency aid to the people affected by this disaster. You may also give online at <https://give.cceasternwa.org/>. Thank you for your generous response.

THE TRANSFIGURATION AND PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL

This past week, on August 6, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Transfiguration of the Lord. Pope Leo, now back from his vacation, celebrated the feast in Assisi at the Portincula, the little church which St. Francis restored in response to the voice of the Lord. Pope Leo's homily is so relevant to us today especially as we undertake the renewal and discernment that is at the heart of the Partners in the Gospel process. Here are some passages from that homily for our reflection:

The Feast of the Transfiguration, which we are celebrating, is a mystery of light that enriches our encounter — one that is so joyful, yet also raises questions about the present and the future. In the Gospel, we find the contrast between light and shadow, silence and words, wonder and incomprehension.

We have come here to understand where history is heading and where we ourselves are going. In the Gospel, we see that meaning can indeed be found, that a path can be glimpsed. Like Peter, James and John, we too have been brought a little aside, and Jesus is with us. What matters is his presence. On the mountain, the apostles contemplate Jesus, who had been speaking about his own future, which had caused a misunderstanding among them. Six days earlier, Peter had taken issue with the Master for speaking openly about the cross (cf. Mt 16:21–26) because he expected glory for the Messiah, and perhaps even for himself. Peter did not consider any opposition or risks, and especially did not ask himself what glory really means. Now, in Jesus' Transfiguration, God himself reveals his glory, which takes the form of a cloud that protects and envelops. He points to his Son and invites us to listen to him. The path of life is discovered by following him together. The beauty of this path takes on a new dimension, an unprecedented intensity, so much so that Peter would like to stay awhile and prolong that vision. He generously offers to build three tents as he would like that conversation between Jesus, Moses and Elijah to continue. However, one must enter into that conversation, not remain a mere spectator.

Indeed, we are called to read the Scriptures with the Master, to interpret our own times and to make decisions by following his path. Jesus calls us to engage with his story in order to write new pages of history.

As we hear that “his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light” (Mt 17:2), we recall Easter morning when an angel of the Lord rolled away the stone sealing the tomb and brought the announcement of the Resurrection. “His face was like lightning, his robe white as snow” (Mt 28:3). That is the light of a new day, toward which we are drawn, even as darkness still surrounds us — and sometimes dwells within us. We see the dawning light in the canonized saints, such as Saint Francis and Saint Clare, and in a myriad of brothers and sisters who respond to evil with good. We are not alone!... Today, we contemplate Jesus, who is transfigured precisely in conversation with the Father, with those who preceded him — Moses and Elijah — and with his contemporaries, the disciples.

The Church exists to lead us into this dynamic of listening and decision-making, in which we come to understand for whom we are to live and how we are to live. The Church is the community in which we learn to discern the voice of God, which never simply coincides with our own opinions, and to dare to obey the Holy Spirit, who makes bold and creative all those who choose to follow Jesus. While we are “disfigured” by separating ourselves from him and from others, we are transfigured through the bonds that nourish and call us to life. Franciscan spirituality, in which you have been formed, is among the most attentive to restoring fundamental relationships with God and with all his creatures. Today, more than ever, this is a harmony that needs to be safeguarded and cultivated... Dear friends, the reason why Saint Francis still draws us to himself, even eight hundred years after his death, lies in the grandeur of humanity that led him to abandon familiar ways in order to find a new path that is more consistent with that of Jesus. Even in a town that had been Christian for centuries, such as Assisi, this seemed revolutionary. “Clare's choice was even more striking: a girl who wanted to be like Francis, who wanted to live, as a woman, as free as those brothers!” (Jubilee Audience, 4 October 2025). This is the energy of Christianity — the energy of its beginnings and of its many new beginnings. POPE LEO XIV

“I thought not of buildings or structures, but of the people of our diocese; the families carrying burdens too heavy for words. In moments like these, the Church is called to do what she has always done: to stand with those who suffer, to pray without ceasing, and to remind one another that even amid ashes, Christ has not abandoned His people.” -Bishop Thomas A. Daly

A Prayer for Spokane

In response to the devastating fires in Spokane

God of mercy and tenderness,
there are moments when words are not enough.
Yet even here, Christ remains present.

We lift to You all those affected by the fires in Spokane.
Be near to families facing loss, fear, and uncertainty.
Comfort those who mourn, shelter those displaced,
and strengthen all whose homes and communities have been harmed.

Lord Jesus, refuge of the suffering,
bring peace to the anxious,
rest to the weary,
and hope to those who feel overwhelmed.
In the midst of ashes and heartbreak,
remind Your people that they are not alone.

Bless firefighters, first responders, medical professionals, clergy, volunteers, and neighbors who serve with courage and compassion.
Protect them, sustain them, and guide them in every need.

Teach us to stand with those who grieve,
to pray without ceasing,
and to bear witness to Your faithful presence.
May those who suffer be consoled,
and may the people of Spokane be upheld
by Your mercy, Your peace, and Your abiding love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

SAVE THE DATE - SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 13, 2026 LADY OF VELANKANNI

Feast Day Celebration

St. Jude Parish will celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Velankanni on Sunday, September 13, 2026 as part of the 11:00AM liturgical service. This beautiful celebration has become a cherished tradition in our community, drawing families from many churches across our area.

For over 400 years, the annual feast in India draws nearly 3 million pilgrims. In 1962, Pope John XXIII elevated the shrine to Basilica status, calling it the "Lourdes of the East." Today, Velankanni remains one of India's most visited religious sites, where Hindus, Muslims, and Christians worship together—a powerful symbol of faith, unity, and healing. You can learn more about the traditions of this Marian day celebration by watching this short YouTube video <https://youtu.be/jP-jGUXwjf0>

Please mark your calendars and plan to join us for this special day of prayer, devotion, and fellowship. If you wish to volunteer to help make the celebration a success you can sign up by scanning the QR code with your camera app

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

1 KGS 19:9A, 11-13A; PS 85:9-14; ROM 9:1-5; MT 14:22-33

Stewardship spirituality invites us to surrender control of our lives to God in grateful recognition that everything we have is a gift from Him.

Today's readings remind us that God is always in control of His creation and His people. They also reveal what can happen when we fully entrust our lives to Him — in other words, when we embrace the stewardship way of life.

When we take our eyes off God, we lose sight of the fact that all is gift. We begin to rely on ourselves instead of trusting in Him, and we fail to make our lives a grateful response to His generosity.

Peter experiences this in today's Gospel from Matthew. Jesus sends the disciples ahead of Him by boat. Later that evening, Jesus comes to them, walking on the water, and invites Peter to join Him. Peter steps out of the boat and begins walking toward the Lord. But when he notices the strong wind around him, instead of keeping his eyes on Christ, he begins to sink.

Imagine if Peter had never looked away from Jesus. What an extraordinary adventure he would have experienced walking on the water with his Lord. The same is true for us. When we take our eyes off Christ, His countless blessings, and His faithful love for us, we begin to sink as well.

But when we embrace the stewardship way of life, loosening our grip on our time, talents, and treasure and placing our trust in God, life becomes a great adventure rooted firmly in the One who never fails us.

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL

Renewing Parish Life

Partners in the Gospel is an archdiocesan-wide renewal effort to better support vibrant, sustainable, mission-focused parish communities across the entire Archdiocese of Seattle. Parish families, comprised of one or more parishes, will create new vision plans together for how to best carry out the mission of the Church helping others know the love and joy of Jesus Christ.

August - For the Elderly

For the elderly, especially those in our parish family who carry the history of our communities, that we may treasure their wisdom and experience in the Partners in the Gospel process.

For more information about Partners in the Gospel, please visit the website or sign up for the Partners in the Gospel UPDATE newsletter at <https://archseattle.org/partners/>

One Parish Planning Process Beginning the One Parish Plan Process

One Parish Planning is the process parish families will use to restructure and reenvision parish life while preparing to become one canonical parish. The result of this discernment is the One Parish Plan that will be given to the archbishop to officially form the new single parish. The OPP process will include multiple groups interacting at various points all with unique roles. To begin this work, each parish family has formed a Parish Family Advisory Council (PFAC) comprised of 9-12 parishioners who are the key consultative body. These members represent all the parishes in the parish family, and they are focused on helping the parish family discern its future parish life.

Our PFAC team has begun meeting and working hard on the next steps of the process. More details to come soon. Please continue to pray for them, for our communities, and for all who will take part in this discernment. May the Holy Spirit guide every conversation, inspire wisdom and unity, and lead our parish family ever closer to Christ as we journey forward together in faith.

All Catholics are invited to join us at Holyrood Cemetery for a Rosary Walk in honor of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Bring your rosary as Fr. Rosary walks are beautiful, reverent, guided walks through the cemetery where participants pray the Rosary together, stopping briefly at designated points (stations) for each decade. A Rosary walk through the cemetery's sacred ground emphasizes peace and contemplation, hope in the Resurrection, and reminds us that a cemetery is a place of active prayer, not just burials and rest. The Walk should take about 60-75 minutes and is free to attend. Just bring your Rosary and meet us in front of the Chapel Mausoleum. Questions?
