THE NOVEMBER FEASTS

Dear friends in Christ,
This year, All Saints Day falls on a Sunday so all the Masses this weekend will be the celebration of All the Saints. Saturday night is All Hallows' Eve, otherwise known as Halloween. Halloween has its origins as the eve of the Solemnity of All Saints. The Solemnity of All the Saints is when we remember all the countless men and women who have reached our ultimate homeland of Heaven. Let us celebrate the victory of All the Saints in heaven and ask their intercession this weekend.

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Pope Benedict beautifully explained the importance of this feast in just a few words:
This, then, is the meaning of today's Solemnity: looking at the shining example of the Saints to reawaken within us the great longing to be like them; happy to live near God, in his light, in the great family of God's friends. Being a Saint means living close to God, to live in his family. ….Consequently, the more we imitate Jesus and remain united to him the more we enter into the mystery of his divine holiness. We discover that he loves us infinitely, and this prompts us in turn to love our brethren. POPE BENEDICT

NOVEMBER 2, THE FEAST OF ALL SOULS, THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED.

All Souls Day is this coming Monday, November 2. This Mass, also known as the commemoration of all the faithful departed, remembers all our beloved dead. All Souls is the day for the rest of us, all those who, though dying in a state of grace, need a little "clean-up" in purgatory before entering the heavenly banquet. Scripture tells us "It is a good and praiseworthy thing to pray for the dead."As Catholics, we have a 2000-year tradition of offering prayers for our deceased, that they might quickly enter into the joys of heaven. So let us remember all of our beloved dead, in the hope and promise of the resurrection. This year, All Souls Day will be celebrated on Monday, November 2 at 9 AM at Holy Innocents, and at 9 AM and 7 PM at St Jude.

Please join us in prayer for all those who have gone to their rest.

Finally, I want to encourage you to visit our cemeteries during this month. Let us remember and pray for our loved ones. Here are some prayers which can be offered at the grave:

A PRAYER FOR VISITING A CEMETERY

Eternal God,
have mercy on all who are buried here. (In particular, we pray for N. and N.) Bring them into your kingdom of light and peace and let them share joy with you and with all your saints. We ask this through Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Blessed are those who have died in the Lord; let them rest from their labors for their good deeds go with them.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord!
R. And let perpetual light shine upon them!
May they rest in peace!
R. Amen
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace.
R. Amen.

SOME IMPORTANT UPCOMING EVENTS:

At Holy Innocents, next Sunday, November 8, is our next Partners in the Gospel Listening Session on " Who does God want us to become?" This will be after both the 8 AM and 10 AM Masses.

At St. Jude, Saturday night, November 7, after Mass is the Pasta Festa fundraiser to benefit the Knights of Columbus College Scholarship Program. You can buy your tickets or find more info in this bulletin or via the St. Jude website.

Please join us for these great events!

THANK YOU!

Finally, a special thank you to all who came, brought food, worked so hard, and made the Feast of St. Jude at Jude and the Italian Dinner at St Anthony such wonderful events last week.

Blessings on you all and blessings on your week!
Fr. Johnson

PARISH STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

Stewardship of Treasure.

Stewardship is about sharing what we have. It is our response to God's generosity.

YOUR GIFT MATTERS SO MUCH

Last week, we invited you to reflect on God's blessings and respond with a spirit of generosity. We are deeply grateful to all who have made a stewardship commitment—your support is a powerful witness to faith in action.

Because of your gifts, our parish continues to thrive. We're able to offer vibrant liturgies, faith formation for all ages, outreach to those in need, and a welcoming community where people can encounter Jesus Christ.

If you haven't yet made your commitment, there's still time. Every gift matters, and together, we make a lasting impact.

Thank you for being part of this mission.

Please make your pledge today!

How to Make Your Pledge:

- ONLINE: Visit your parish's website or scan the QR Code below for your intended parish. *Each parish has separate campaign pages.
- Use the commitment card found in the pews

Stewardship of Treasure.

"Give to the Most High as he has given to you, generously, according to your means. For he is a God who always repays and will give back to you sevenfold."

Sirach 35:12–13

STEWARDSHIP IS ABOUT SHARING WHAT WE HAVE. IT IS A FAITHFUL RESPONSE TO CHRIST AND A COMMITMENT TO USING WELL WHAT TRULY BELONGS TO GOD.

Everything we have is a gift from God and we're called to share these gifts with others. Stewardship is our response to God's generosity.

Stewardship is also the tangible way we express our discipleship. When we respond to God's goodness by growing in gratitude and generosity, we experience the difference that stewardship makes in our lives.

Please prayerfully reflect on your many blessings and make your pledge today. As you renew your gift of treasure, please consider taking a step as you move forward in faith. To make or renew a pledge, submit your pledge card or go to our parish website.

BEWARE OF SCAMS

EMAIL AND PHISHING SCAMS ON THE RISE

SCAM ALERT

We're seeing a rise in scam emails impersonating Fr. Johnson, local clergy, and parish staff. Please remember that our clergy and parish staff will never individually solicit gifts or donations via email or text. Unfortunately, we expect these scams to continue and potentially increase as we get closer to the holidays. Please stay vigilant, and always verify suspicious requests directly with the person through a trusted, separate means of communication before responding.

NOVEMBER 1-7

National Vocation Awareness week is a annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States is dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

A vocation is a call from God to a life of committed love reflecting the love that God has for each of us. If you have not yet found your vocation, take time every day to ask God what he wants you to do with your life, and listen for his response in the stillness of your heart for peace and clarity. If you are already living your vocation, be a good example of that vocation, share the challenges and the blessings of your vocation with others, and continue to pray for those still discerning God's will.

ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE
PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father,
You call each of us
to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.
Inspire your people
with desire to know you,
the grace to understand your will,
and, with the strength of the Holy Spirit,
the courage to respond
with love and freedom.
Send workers into your great harvest
so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted,
and your people are strengthened by the sacraments.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

RV 7:2-4, 9-14; PS 24:1B-4B, 5-6; 1 JN 3:1-3; MT 5:1-12A

On this Solemnity of All Saints, we have the profound joy of celebrating our brothers and sisters in Christ, the saints. This is an especially meaningful feast for us as Christian stewards.
At Baptism, each of us receives the call to holiness and disciple-ship. In other words, we are all called to become saints. Holiness is not reserved for a select few. It is God's desire for every one of His children. The steward-ship way of life helps us answer that call each day. In today's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes. They reveal the qualities that mark the lives of His disciples and point us toward authentic holiness. As we continue striving to live as faithful stewards, the Beatitudes provide a faithful measure of our growth in Christ.
The "blessed" that Jesus describes are not different categories of people who make it to heaven. Rather, they reveal the character of those who belong to Him — the poor in spirit, the merciful, the pure of heart, the peacemakers, and all who remain faithful in the midst of trials. None of us can live this way on our own. But as beloved children of God, we receive the grace we need through prayer, the sacraments, and a life centered on Christ.
May the example of the saints inspire us to persevere in our own call to holiness, trusting that one day we will join them in the everlasting joy of heaven.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Feast Day Mass and Reception

November 13, 2026 12:10PM St James

Join us for the St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Feast Day Mass at St. James Cathedral on November 13, presided by Fr. Gary Lazzeroni. St Frances Cabrini is the patron saint of immigrants and is known for her work with immigrants in the Archdiocese of Seattle and elsewhere.

After the Mass, join us for a reception to learn about the work of "Mother Cabrini Missionary Disciples" and how you can support this important ministry in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

A New Prison Ministry in Lacey

Families of Incarcerated

In April, a prison ministry launched out of Sacred Heart Parish in Lacey and its reach extends throughout the Archdiocese of Seattle. We understand that having a loved one who is incarcerated can be a difficult and lonely journey. You are not alone. The Families of Incarcerated ministry is here to offer you compassion, community, and support as you navigate this challenging time. Please consider contacting us by visiting our website (scan the QR) to connect with our welcoming community where you'll find understanding hearts and shared experiences.
