AT ST JUDE THIS WEEKEND - THE FEAST OF SAINT JUDE

This Sunday at all the Masses, St. Jude celebrates its patronal feast. We give thanks to God for such a good heavenly patron and once again ask his help. It is a wonderful opportunity to marvel at all God has done at St. Jude in the past 47 years in and through its parishioners. God has indeed blessed us! I am so grateful to God for all the many generations of parishioners who have shared their faith, nurtured a culture of service, and offered so generously their time, talent, and treasure to make St. Jude what it is today. Heartfelt thanks to you all! Let us celebrate! Please join us in celebrating St. Jude at all the Masses (at St. Jude) and for the International Potluck after the 11AM Mass to continue the celebration. In addition, at the 5PM Mass, Bishop Schuster will be filling in for Fr. Raphael and will offer Mass for the Feast. St. Jude… pray for us!

AT ST ANTHONY THIS WEEKEND - OUR ANNUAL ITALIAN DINNER AND LISTENING SESSION: WHO DOES GOD WANT US TO BECOME?

Saturday night, after the 5PM Mass, St. Anthony in Carnation will have its Annual Italian Dinner, and afterwards, we will begin our second round of Partners in the Gospel listening sessions. This round focuses on asking the Holy Spirit to guide us as we come together as one parish.We ask, "Who does God want us to become?" What is the vision God has for us, and what are the pastoral directions the Lord wants us to take? Please join us.

POPE LEO HAD A SUCCESSFUL SURGERY AND GAVE THE GENERAL AUDIENCE LAST WEDNESDAY.

We rejoice in Pope Leo's successful lung surgery and recovery. He received a clean bill of health this past week and gave the Wednesday General Audience in St. Peter's Square. We thank God and ask the Lord to continue to help him recover and return fully to his duties.

Here is an excerpt of the catechesis Pope Leo gave at that Audience on Vatican II:

The first thing I would like to say is thank you! Thank you for the support of your prayers. Thanks be to God for His generosity. Let us all renew our trust in God's goodness and mercy. The pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes (GS) of the Second Vatican Council, having illustrated in the first part the dignity of the person and his or her vocation in the world, goes on to consider, in the second part, "in the light of the Gospel and of human experience", some of the most pressing contemporary issues (cf. GS, 46). It focuses primarily on marriage and the family, in the conviction that "the well-being of the individual and of human and Christian society is intimately linked with the healthy condition of that community produced by marriage and family" (GS, 47).

To this end, it does not merely reaffirm their values and aims but proposes a renewed conception of marriage as an "intimate partnership of married life and love" (GS, 48). By incorporating the legal dimension of marriage as a contract, the foundation of this union is recognized in the "conjugal covenant", understood as the "human act whereby spouses mutually bestow and accept each another" (ibid.). The mutual self-giving of man and woman, such that 'they are no longer two but one flesh' (Mt 19:6), underlies the requirement for "total fidelity" and the "unbreakable oneness" of the spouses, finding vivid expression in the procreation and upbringing of children (cf. GS, 48). As a reflection of the Divine Trinity, conjugal and parental love, through the Sacrament of Marriage, is "governed and enriched by Christ's redeeming power", so that spouses may love one another "just as He loved the Church and handed Himself over on her behalf" (ibid.).

Having shed light on the reality of marriage in the light of Christ's love, which is the truth of both human and divine love, Gaudium et Spes turns its attention to conjugal love and marital fruitfulness. Not limited to erotic attraction, which it nonetheless encompasses, conjugal love involves the entire will of the spouses, enlivening the affections of their hearts and expressing itself through sentiments and gestures of tenderness (cf. GS, 49). Embracing the good of the whole person of both man and woman, who are equal in dignity, this love pervades the entire life of the spouses, finding expression in acts proper exclusively to marriage (cf. ibid.). Whilst signifying integral love from person to person, the unique intimacy between the spouses fosters their mutual self-giving and enriches their shared joy (cf. ibid.). Furthermore, the fruitfulness of conjugal love is expressed in the procreation of children, "the supreme gift of marriage" (GS, 50). By transmitting and educating human life, which must never be rejected, spouses become "cooperators with the love of God the Creator, and are, so to speak, the interpreters of that love" (ibid.). … The teaching of Gaudium et Spes on the conjugal and family community thus goes on to highlight the social function of the family, defined as "a school of deeper humanity" and "the foundation of society" (GS, 52)…

Dear friends, this task is more urgent than ever before. May the Holy Family of Nazareth enlighten us on our journey and protect families throughout the world.
POPE LEO XIV

Blessings on your week!
Fr Johnson

PARISH STEWARDSHIP APPEAL KICKOFF

Stewardship of Treasure.

Stewardship is about sharing what we have. It is our response to God's generosity.

GRATITUDE FOR ALL GOD'S GIFTS

As we begin our annual focus on Stewardship of Treasure, we invite you to take a moment to reflect on how God has blessed you over the past year. This week, you will receive a letter from Fr. Johnson, encouraging you to consider how you might return a portion of those blessings to our parish community. Your generous gifts directly support our mission of helping one another encounter Jesus Christ in meaningful and transformative ways. Please make your pledge today by scanning the QR code below for your intended parish, or completing the commitment card in the pew, or going to your parish website. Thank you.

REMINDER: EACH PARISH HAS SEPARATE CAMPAIGN PAGES.

How to Make Your Pledge:

HAPPY ALL HALLOW'S EVE

OCTOBER 31, 2026

Wishing all our little saints and their families a joyful, safe, and blessed All Hallows' Eve! May it be filled with treats, happy memories, and God's abundant blessings!

BEWARE OF SCAMS

EMAIL AND PHISHING SCAMS ON THE RISE ONCE AGAIN

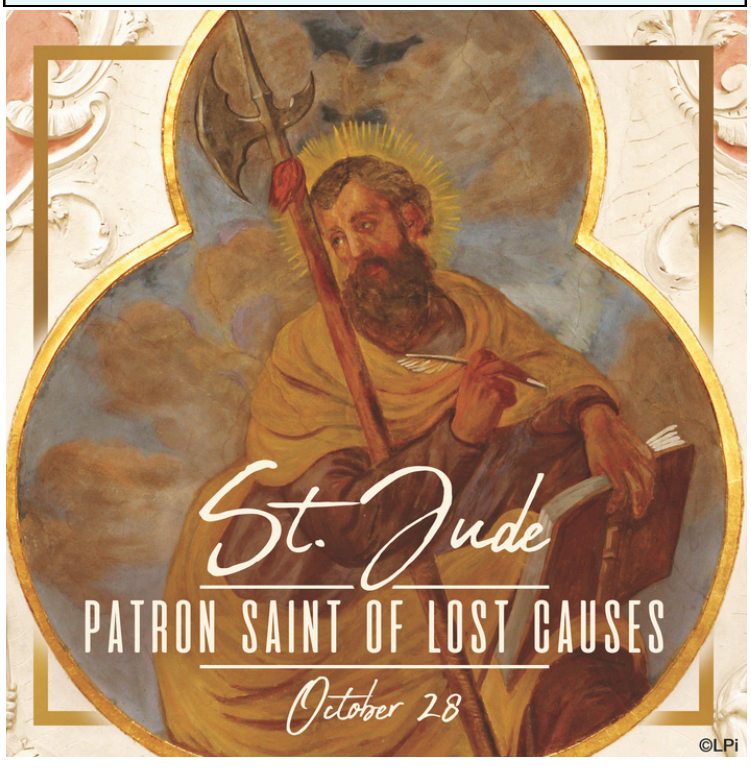

We're seeing another rise in scam emails impersonating Fr. Johnson, other local clergy, and parish staff. Please remember that our clergy and parish staff will never individually solicit gifts or donations via email or text. Unfortunately, we expect these scams to continue and potentially increase as we get closer to the holidays. Please stay vigilant, and always verify suspicious requests directly with the person through a trusted, separate means of communication before responding.

NOVEMBER 1, 2026 DST ENDS!

DON'T FORGET TO TURN BACK YOUR CLOCKS!

Remember to turn your clocks back one hour next Sunday! Otherwise, you might be VERY early for Mass... which isn't necessarily a bad thing. Think of it as an unexpected opportunity for a little extra prayer time!

HOLY INNOCENTS

As a reminder... At Holy Innocents, we have two Stewardship Campaigns, our operations budget and our building loan called Living Stones. You can make a donation to either or both of these through our online giving platform found at our website www.holyinn.org. Thank you for your ongoing generosity toward supporting our parish.

ST ANTHONY

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

EX 22:20-26; PS 18:2-4, 47, 51; 1 THES 1:5C-10; MT 22:34-40

Today's readings at Holy Innocents and at St. Anthony are all about love — God's faithful love for His people and the love we are called to return to Him and to one another. The stewardship way of life is simply the daily practice of these two greatest commandments.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is asked which commandment is the greatest. His answer is both familiar and endlessly challenging. He says, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind... The second is like it: you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Why are these two commandments inseparable? Because both are rooted in love.

When we love God above all else, we begin to see others as He sees them. And when we genuinely love our neighbor, we reflect the love we have first received from Him.

This is the heart of Christian stewardship. It is simple enough for a child to understand, yet rich enough to spend a lifetime putting into practice.
