PRAY FOR POPE LEO AND FOR OUR FAMILIES

Dear friends in Christ,
This past week, as most of you have heard, Pope Leo had surgery to remove a lobe of his lung and was diagnosed with lung cancer. Though it was caught early, we want to be sure to pray for the Holy Father, for his recovery, for healing and for his good health. No doubt this has come as quite a shock to him, but he is approaching it with his usual grace and good humor. He has asked for our prayers, so let us offer them up for him and for the sake of the Church.

This past week, the Holy Father called a conference on Amoris Laetitia, Pope Francis' apostolic letter on the family. He was to deliver this homily at the close of the meetings but Cardinal Tagle delivered it in his stead. In it, Pope Leo reminds us of what is fundamental to the family and the life of faith:

"The joy of love experienced by families is also the joy of the Church" …. In this regard, today's liturgy offers us several points for reflection. In the first reading, we heard Saint Paul's "hymn to love" (cf. 1 Cor 12:31–13:13). In Chapter 4 of the Apostolic Exhortation, this same text provides the basis of a rich meditation on the virtues of Christian marriage, a union that is "affective… spiritual and sacrificial" (no. 120), and an icon of God's love (cf. no. 121)…. Moreover, the Apostle was addressing a community rich in gifts and charisms (cf. 1 Cor 12:4-11), yet one that needed to mature in love. He reminded the Corinthians that persons without love, despite all the talents they may have received, are like "a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal" (13:1), like a voice without love, unable to speak to the heart, cut off from others, distant, cold and impenetrable. We were not made to live that way. The responsorial Psalm also calls this to mind by calling us the "people" and "flock" of a God whose "steadfast love endures for ever" and whose faithfulness extends "to all generations" (Ps 100:5). He is a Lord who loves without holding back, who never ceases to seek us, place his trust in us and renew his friendship with us.

This is the love that Amoris Laetitia invites us to make the foundation of our families. This is the true love that, in a particular way, we are urged to teach to young people preparing for marriage, instructing them about "the importance of the virtues," among which a special place is given to chastity, which is "invaluable for the genuine growth of love between persons" ….Pope Francis observed that "learning to love someone does not happen automatically, nor can it be taught in a workshop just prior to the celebration of marriage" (no. 208). He explained: "For every couple, marriage preparation begins at birth," (ibid.) and everything a young person experiences within the family should help to make that person capable of "a full and definitive commitment" (ibid.).

In this way, love lived within the family — with its moments of struggle, mistakes and failures, yet also with the marvel of its unpredictable, everyday life — becomes the first school of human affection, the first precious and irreplaceable apprenticeship in the "joy of love." …. The Evangelist John handed down to us the simple and clear instruction that Jesus spoke at the end of his earthly life: "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you" (Jn 15:12). Let us put it into practice, so that we may grow as a Church that is a "family of families" (Amoris Laetitia, no. 87), in an atmosphere of reciprocal care that will benefit us all. Thus, young couples will feel encouraged as they begin their married life; parents will find support as they face the demanding challenges of raising their children and managing family life; and older people will be recognized and valued in their role as witnesses to wisdom and virtue, even as their physical strength wanes. Those who are more vulnerable, or who are experiencing difficult circumstances and moments of crisis, will also find support and encouragement, surrounded by affection and shielded from judgment and prejudice. Let us remember that "as wounded as the family may be, it can always grow beginning with love"

The values of openness to life and respect for life, from conception to natural death, are also rooted in this charity, which is fundamental to our existence and to our life together as human beings. The family is the foremost guardian of these values, a beacon for the good of humanity. In this regard, Pope Francis stressed that "no union that is temporary or closed to the transmission of life can ensure the future of society" (Amoris Laetitia, 52). The world has no future without strong families open to the gift of children and attentive to their education and growth.

I would like to recall another important invitation from Jesus, in the readings we have heard, that we ask the Father "in my name" (Jn 15:16). These words remind us that the family is a privileged place of prayer. Sadly, in many parts of the world today, the practice of praying together at home — before meals, at the beginning and end of the day, or on special occasions — has fallen away. Amoris Laetitia reminds us that "emphasis should also be given to the importance of family spirituality, prayer and participation in the Sunday Eucharist" (no. 223). It likewise recommends that families gather "regularly to promote growth in their spiritual life and solidarity in the concrete demands of life" (ibid.). Common prayer and the Sacraments play a vital role in family life because they open hearts to the action of God, enabling families to reach together places that they could never reach on their own. Indeed, they are a solid nourishment and a healing medicine. I therefore strongly urge everyone to rediscover and encourage these practices…. Dear brothers and sisters, let us entrust all families and the whole Church to the Holy Family of Nazareth… POPE LEO XIV

Blessings on your week!
Fr Johnson

PARISH FAMILY ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2025 - 2026

This year we are excited to offer, for the first time, an Annual Report for our Parish Family!
If you've yet to receive one, extra copies are available in the Narthex. It is also available online on our parish websites.

"This annual report reflects this past fiscal year's financial results and sacramental statistics for each of our churches, but it cannot begin to reveal the beauty of the life of faith lived out on a daily basis in our parishes." -Fr. Johnson

ONE IN CHRIST, United in Mission

100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Prayer of Pope Leo XIV
for the 100th World Mission Sunday 2026

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews. May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures.

Bless all missionary men and women, support them in their efforts, and watch over them in hope!

Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelization in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognize in Christ the light that saves.

Amen.

SPECIAL COLLECTION: WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This weekend, we celebrate World Mission Sunday, which happens each year on the second-to-last Sunday of October as a day of prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission throughout the world. This year marks the 100th anniversary, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926. The annual collection, entrusted to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, supports the Church in more than 1,300 mission territories, especially young and growing communities facing poverty, isolation, or persecution. Through our prayers and generosity, we share in Christ's call to "make disciples of all nations," participating in the Church's universal mission even when we cannot go to the missions ourselves. Thank you for your generosity!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

IS 45:1, 4-6; PS 96:1, 3-5, 7-10; 1 THES 1:1-5B; MT 22:15-21

Today's readings remind us to be mindful not only of who we are, but also Whose we are.

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees attempt to trap Jesus by asking whether it is lawful to pay the tax to Caesar. Their question is meant to force Him into choosing sides. But Jesus refuses to be drawn into their narrow way of thinking.

Instead, He asks whose image appears on the coin. When they answer, "Caesar," Jesus responds, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." Those words remind us that while we have responsibilities in this world, our first allegiance belongs to God. Everything we have comes from Him, and through Baptism we have become His sons and daughters.

Our time, our talents, our treasure, and our very lives are gifts entrusted to us by the Lord. May we use them each day in grateful response to His goodness, remembering that we belong to Him above all else.

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL: WHO ARE WE?

A thank-you, and a first look at what you told us

Who are we as a parish family? That was the question at the heart of this first phase of consultation. The goal was to build a shared understanding and appreciation of the history, the people, the gifts, and the ministries at the center of each of our parishes, and to explore the opportunities and challenges we face today.

Thank you to the nearly 200 of you who completed the survey and the dozens who joined our listening sessions. This is a summary of what we heard.

What we treasure most

Your answers were remarkably united. Again and again, you named:

1. Community and belonging: a welcoming, "like family" parish (named by nearly 4 of every 5 of you)
2. The Mass and sacraments: reverent, prayerful worship
3. Service to others: our food pantries, St. Vincent de Paul, the Giving Tree
4. Music and our choirs
5. Our young families and children

Each community's gifts shine, too

- St. Jude: a welcoming, diverse parish, rich in ministries, with beloved priests and reverent worship.
- Holy Innocents: a "can-do," service-rooted family known for its pantry and its beautiful valley grounds.
- St. Anthony: an intimate, historic parish (100+ years) where the bilingual Mass and close-knit care are treasured.

What you're asking for

You were honest about our challenges, and hopeful about our future. Most of all, you asked us to welcome and invest in the next generation, our youth and young families. You asked us to keep faith formation and the sacraments close to home, to be open and transparent as our finances and plans come together, and, as we unite, to protect what makes each parish special.

Where we are, and what's next

This is just the beginning of our journey together, unfolding in three phases:

Phase 1, "Who are we?" (now):

The survey and listening-session input summarized here.

Phase 2, "Who does God want us to become?" (late October, November):

Through more surveys, listening sessions, prayer, and discernment, we'll ask where the Holy Spirit is guiding us. This input will help the Parish Family Advisory Council draft a One Parish Plan for how our three churches will work together as one family in the Snoqualmie Valley and Redmond.

Phase 3, Feedback on the draft (Spring):

We'll seek your feedback on the draft plan before submitting it to the Archdiocese next Fall.

Please stay tuned, and above all, please pray that the Holy Spirit guides our parish family throughout this journey.

Thank you for your honesty, your faith, and your love for this community. Please keep this journey, and one another, in your prayers.

October Senior Lunch

Thank you to Sue Ludwig, who provided our October lunch and Jan Parker and Joan Caldwell who helped set up and clean up and to all the people who brought food to this month's senior luncheon. Oktoberfest was in the air as we enjoyed bratworst, german potato salad and a variety of foods to celebrate this fall season.

HOLY INNOCENTS PANTRY

Are you looking for a way to support the food pantry this week? This week they want to re-stock the shelves with top ramen and Macaroni and cheese. If you could put a box or two of one of these in your cart when you do your own grocery shopping and then drop it off here at Holy Innocents, we would be appreciative of you helping to stock the shelves.

You can drop your donations in the food baskets at the doors of the church or drop them on Monday mornings, 9 am — 12 noon, when our pantry volunteers are here.

Holy Innocents Food Pantry is open:
Tuesdays 3-6:30 pm and Wednesday, 10 am - noon.

Mass in Honor of St. Kateri Tekakwitha

October 31, 2026 11:00 AM St James

Join Archbishop Paul D. Etienne for a Mass in Honor of St. Kateri Tekakwitha – patron saint of Native Americans and of the environment. Each year, we celebrate St. Kateri at St. James Cathedral near the anniversary of her canonization to honor her role as the first Native American saint. The last miracle for St. Kateri's canonization took place right here in Seattle. A reception follows the Mass, and all are welcome.
