

The Clubhouse Chronicles

The Original Farmhouse

Lewis Hendricks and his wife, Sally LeMasters Hendricks, originally from Kentucky, moved to the area in 1822. The couple resided in a small log cabin as their larger family home (they had 12 children!), a beautiful farmhouse perched on a hill - one day to become the original clubhouse of Hillview Country Club and the inspiration for the Club's name - was constructed. Mr. Hendricks was a notable settler of the area with substantial involvement on the Franklin College Board of Trustees, donating 266,00 bricks when Chandler Hall was built between 1843 and 1847.

FUN FACT: The log cabin that the Hendricks Family originally inhabited now sits at the Johnson County Museum of History, located on North Main Street in Franklin.
