

The Clubhouse Chronicles

Snack Shack Still Stands

Generations of members have leaned on the windows of our little Snack Shack to order ice cream, grab a cold drink, and catch up on summer memories. While the faces behind the counter have changed, the pool Shack Shack windows have remained a familiar part of life here at Hillview Country Club. The top photo was snapped in August of '82, depicting Mr. Don Trout, whose twin daughters were lifeguards at the Club and taught swim lessons!

Fun Fact: If you look closely, Kermit the Frog is promoting an Adult Pool Party & Cookout for Saturday, August 14th, 1982.

Luke Buck Centennial Print Pre-Order

Notable Johnson County watercolorist, Luke Buck, has captured the rich, summertime beauty that defines Hillview Country Club in the midst of the golf season. The original painting, commissioned in celebration of the Club's Centennial, acts as the anchor to the Hillview History Wall.

Printed with lightfast ink (Ink that resists fading and discoloration when exposed to light) using Giclee's printing process (Digital) on ph-neutral paper. Each print will be examined, Signed, and Numbered by Mr. Buck himself.
