Hand-Drawn Memories

Some things never change...Our Hillview Ladies have always appreciated a knack for a hand-drawn picture! From Opening Day to Buddy Day and Friends' Day, a unique and special personal touch is always added to these events.

Fun Fact: Our on-site records show these crafty flyers going all the way back to 1972!

Luke Buck Centennial Print Pre-Order

Notable Johnson County watercolorist, Luke Buck, has captured the rich, summertime beauty that defines Hillview Country Club in the midst of the golf season. The original painting, commissioned in celebration of the Club's Centennial, acts as the anchor to the Hillview History Wall.

Printed with lightfast ink (Ink that resists fading and discoloration when exposed to light) using Giclee's printing process (Digital) on ph-neutral paper. Each print will be examined, Signed, and Numbered by Mr. Buck himself.

Second wave pre-orders are due by September 1st.

A third wave of pre-orders will re-open later in the year to coordinate with our Centennial Celebration.

Centennial Dedication Opportunities

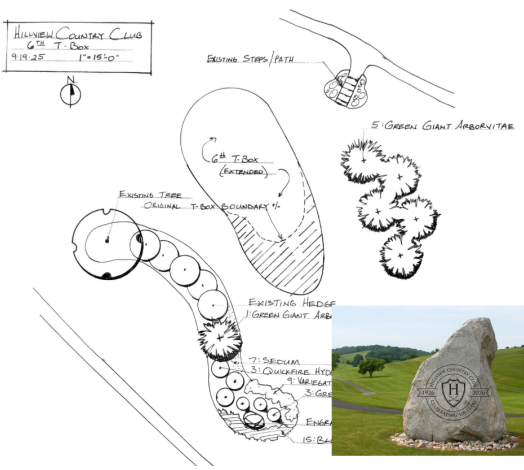

History Wall

Installation to honor the people, milestones, and moments that shaped the club's journey. A curated display featuring archival photographs, artifacts, and stories that reflect a century of growth. To be displayed in the Augusta Room.

The 6th Tee Box

The wished-for project of expanding the 6th tee box paired with a monument crafted from native Indiana limestone. Designed to stand as a quiet sentinel on the course, it marks a foundational moment in the club's history and represents the timeless elegance of the game.
