

The Clubhouse Chronicles

Name Change and Bylaws

On December 2nd, 1933, in the City of Indianapolis, an amendment change for one of the Articles of Incorporation was filed in the office of the Secretary of State. This certificate allowed for the name change of Johnson County Golf and Country Club to become Hillview Country Club, Inc. The amendment was signed by Frank Mayr, Jr., the Secretary of State, and Joseph O. Hoffmann, the Deputy Secretary.

Fun Fact: Formerly, every applicant was reviewed by the Membership Committee, and (2) negative votes from said committee resulted in the rejection of the applicant - Ouch!

Luke Buck Centennial Print Pre-Order

Notable Johnson County watercolorist, Luke Buck, has captured the rich, summertime beauty that defines Hillview Country Club in the midst of golf season. The original painting, commissioned in celebration of the Club's Centennial, will act as the anchor to the Hillview History Wall.

Printed with lightfast ink (Ink that resists fading and discoloration when exposed to light) using Giclee's printing process (Digital) on ph-neutral paper. Each print will be examined and Signed & Numbered by Mr. Buck himself.

First wave pre-orders are due by March 1st.
A second batch of printings will be available later in the year.

Centennial Dedication Opportunities

Installation to honor the people, milestones, and moments that shaped the Club's journey. A curated display featuring archival photographs, artifacts, and stories that reflect a century of growth. To be displayed in the Augusta Room.

The wished-for project of expanding the 6th tee box paired with a monument crafted from native Indiana limestone. Designed to stand as a quiet sentinel on the course, it marks a foundational moment in the club's history and represents the timeless elegance of the game.
