The Cypress Heart

The Heart Over the Percent

Tithing in the Bible refers to the practice of giving a tenth of one's income or produce to support worship and community care. Originating in the Old Testament, Abraham offered a tithe to the priest Melchizedek, setting an early example of voluntary devotion that was later formalized under the Mosaic Law. Under Levitical law, Israelites were commanded to give 10% of their agricultural yield and livestock to sustain the Levites—who had no territorial inheritance—as well as to support temple operations, fund sacred festivals, and provide for vulnerable groups like orphans, widows, and foreigners. Rather than being merely an administrative tax, the tithe was a deeply spiritual act designed to acknowledge God as the ultimate owner of all creation and to foster a culture of gratitude and communal responsibility.

In the New Testament, the perspective on tithing evolves into a broader emphasis on heart motivation, generosity, and stewardship. While Jesus affirmed the practice of tithing when speaking to religious leaders, He cautioned against focusing strictly on financial mechanics while neglecting larger matters such as justice, mercy, and faithfulness. Paul built upon this in his letters to the early Church, encouraging believers to give cheerfully, intentionally, and proportionally to how they have been blessed, rather than out of compulsion or a legalistic quota. Today, while Christian traditions debate whether the Old Testament 10% requirement applies strictly to modern believers, the underlying Biblical principle remains consistent: giving is viewed as an act of worship that honors God, sustains ministry, and cares for those in need.

God's purpose for Little Cypress Baptist Church is to obey the Great Commission by being involved here and abroad in evangelism through missions, discipling believers, meeting social needs, and providing opportunities for Christian worship.

From A. W. Tozer:

Join us tomorrow night, October 5th at 6 PM as we go out to impact our community with the Truth of Jesus.

Greeters Needed!
If you are interested in greeting people as they come in before church on one Sunday morning a month (or more if you so desire), let either Randy or Leslie Ray know. Thanks!
