

Scholarship Fund for LCBC

Approved in Church Conference October 9, 1994

Article I

Name

The Name of this fund shall be the Harold W. Mills Scholarship Fund.

Article II

Purpose

The purpose of the Harold W. Mills Scholarship Fund shall be to aid graduating high school seniors to further their secondary education in order to better equip them to serve our Lord Jesus Christ.

Article III

History

The Harold W. Mills Scholarship Fund was begun in 1994 by a gift of $50,000.00 from Jennie Mills in memory of her husband, Harold W. Mills. In establishing the scholarship fund the Mills family expressed their desire to assist the young people of Little Cypress Baptist Church in furthering their education.

Article IV

Administration

1. The administration of the fund will be the responsibility of the scholarship fund trustees, which will be the church treasurer and two other church members selected by the church staff and approved by the church.
2. The available monies to be used for scholarship purposes shall be limited to the interest gained from the scholarship fund.
3. The investment of the monies shall be the responsibility of the scholarship fund trustees. The investments and their performance shall be reported to the church at regular scheduled church conferences.
