WELCOME & THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

Pastor      Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness.
                Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

All      We give you thanks, O God,
                for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters
                and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.

Pastor      Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.
                Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom.
                At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.
                By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.

All      We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life, and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ.
                Shower us with your Spirit,
                and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.
                To you be given honor and praise
                through Jesus Christ our Lord
                in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
                Amen.

We sprinkle the whole community with water as a remembrance of our baptism.

FIRST READING: EXODUS 24:12-18

Reader Our first reading this morning is from the book of Exodus.

<sup>12</sup> The Lord said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and wait there; I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.” <sup>13</sup> So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup> To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come back to you. Look, Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup> The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. <sup>17</sup> Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the Israelites. <sup>18</sup> Moses entered the cloud and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Reader Word of God, Word of Life.

All Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING: MATTHEW 17:1-9

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

All Glory to you, O God.

<sup>1</sup> Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. <sup>2</sup> And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. <sup>3</sup> Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. <sup>4</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” <sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” <sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. <sup>7</sup> But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” <sup>8</sup> And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

Reader This is the good news of Jesus Christ, the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you O Christ.
