John 8:12

*I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
whoever follows me will have the light of life.*

February 8, 2026

Upon their return to Jerusalem, Isaiah tells his fellow Israelites that God has some blunt commands: Feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, clothe the naked, and aid the oppressed. In doing so, Isaiah promises, their light will shine forth and their souls shall be healed. Jerusalem, the holy city, now freed from captivity, will reveal the Lord's glory when its people sacrifice what they have for those in need. Jesus invokes this image when calling upon his disciples to let their light shine for all to see, as a city on a mountain is visible from all around. Jesus and his disciples are conspicuous among the people of Galilee and Judea, drawing crowds wherever they go. Jesus wants the good deeds that his disciples carry out to be seen by all, glorifying God and giving everyone a glimpse of the kingdom he preaches. Even Saint Paul, who wrote to Christian communities more extensively than anyone, told the Corinthians he preaches not with words but with the power of the cross. For it is in that ultimate sacrifice that Jesus revealed God's mercy and love most fully. It is our turn now. May the good works we do reflect the light of Christ for all the world to see.

What concrete action will you do this week that can shine Christ's light in your corner of the world?

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 58:7-10 | 1 Cor 2:1-5 | Mt 5:13-16

Written by THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

My understanding of prayer changed when I read St. Teresa of Calcutta's statement that says, "I used to believe that prayer changes things, but now I know that prayer changes us and we change things." Prayer is not an incantation that can change the will of God. It is the act of raising our hearts and minds to God, and of opening ourselves — our will, our understanding, our joys, and our sorrows — to be sanctified. The prophet Isaiah seems to be saying something similar in the first reading. He lists off the commands of the Lord to clothe the naked, feed the hungry, and shelter the homeless, and then tells the faithful that if they do these things, "then your light shall break forth like the dawn." We certainly serve those who are vulnerable because each person has immeasurable dignity and deserves to be cared for as a child of God. But the act of caring for another also changes us. We are made more fully into who we were created to be — not an individual living in isolation, but one who is deeply connected in community to the rest of humankind.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

An act of service, then, is much bigger than simply donating money or giving of our time. In caring for our neighbor, we proclaim God's goodness to a world in darkness, bearing witness to the love of God which is the source of all our actions. In the Gospel, Christ calls his followers to be "the light of the world," reminding us that he wants to shine his light through us. But we are not the source of the light. Even when we are the ones serving, we still remain only the vessel the true light shines through. When we love others, we are changed because we allow ourselves to be conformed more closely to Christ, allowing others to encounter his love in our actions.

SERVE

The corporal works of mercy are to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, visit the sick, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. This is not a list meant to overwhelm, but rather to provide opportunities to care for God's children. What act of service can you and your family engage in this week to allow the light of Christ to shine through you?

Lectio Divina

Lectio Divina for the Fifth Week in Ordinary Time

We begin our prayer:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

(Collect, Fifth Week in Ordinary Time)

Reading (Lectio)

Read the following Scripture two or three times.
Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Meditation (Meditatio)

After the reading, take some time to reflect in silence on one or more of the following questions:

- What word or words in this passage caught your attention?
- What in this passage comforted you?
- What in this passage challenged you?

If practicing lectio divina as a family or in a group, after the reflection time, invite the participants to share their responses.

Prayer (Oratio)

Read the Scripture passage one more time. Bring to the Lord the praise, petition, or thanksgiving that the Word inspires in you.

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

CATHOLIC.BIBLE

Contemplation (Contemplatio)

Read the Scripture again, followed by this reflection:

What conversion of mind, heart, and life is the Lord asking of me?

It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. What bad habits and sinful behaviors do I need to remove from my life? How can I replace these things with holier practices?

Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket. When have I hidden my light under a basket? When have I failed to appreciate God's blessings?

It gives light to all in the house. Who has shared the light of Christ with me? How can I share the light of Christ with others?

After a period of silent reflection and/or discussion, all recite the Lord's Prayer and the following:

Closing Prayer

Light shines through the darkness for the upright;
he is gracious and merciful and just.
Well for the man who is gracious and lends,
who conducts his affairs with justice.

He shall never be moved;
the just one shall be in everlasting remembrance.
An evil report he shall not fear;
his heart is firm, trusting in the LORD.

His heart is steadfast; he shall not fear.
Lavishly he gives to the poor;
His justice shall endure forever;
his horn shall be exalted in glory.

(From Psalm 112)

Living the Word This Week

How can I make my life a gift for others in charity?

Keep a gratitude journal for a week, taking notice of God's blessings and thanking him for them.

Language

There was a mother mouse who decided to teach her children about the world. So she gathered all of her little mice and set out for a walk. They walked down the hall and turned to the right. Then they went down the hall and took another right. And suddenly they found themselves in front of the family cat dozing in the sunlight. The mother mouse was scared. But she didn't want to give in to her fright. So she signaled to the children to be very quiet and to follow as she began to tip toe quietly and slowly past the sleeping cat. Just as she was about to get past the cat, the cat's eyes popped open and raised its paw.

The little mice were petrified. What would their mother do? Well, just as the cat's paw started to come down, that mother mouse looked the cat right in the eye and started barking like a dog. And do you know what? The cat was so startled and frightened that it jumped up and ran away! The mother mouse, wiped her brow, shook a little and then turned to her little mice and said, "Children, I hope you learned a valuable lesson. Sometimes it's good to know a second language!"

It's the same with us.

It's good to know a second language. Salt and light are the language of God; the language of Grace; the language of Hope and Love. And when this language is translated into action it becomes the most beautiful language ever spoken. We're called to be salt and light and to speak the language of God as we live our faith. We're called to live the Word. Do we?

Reflectors

Beth drove to the summit of a local mountain. After watching the sunset, it became dark and she became anxious about the descent down the steep, winding road. When she left the parking lot the median strips on the road suddenly came alive with reflectorized lights. They provided a much-needed directional guide on the mountain road.

The reflectors illuminated the way for Beth, who made her descent safely down the treacherous mountain road. The reflectors, however, were useless without Beth's headlights shining on them. The light they gave depended on the light from another source. Otherwise, they could not help her see.

When Jesus told his disciples they were the "light of the world," he meant they were to be reflectors of the light of God. God is the illuminating source. God provides the light that is reflected through us. And God needs us to be reflectors of His light to a world of darkness.

Are we?

You are the Light of the World

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory Be

Amen.

PSALM 23

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil,
my cup overflows.

Our Father

who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

CATHOLIC QUIZ 8 February 2026

This week's Question: "What is the Equestrian Order of the Most Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem?"

The answer to last week's Question: "What is a 'Papal Bull'?"

It is a type of papal letter, so named from the Latin term bullā (seal), of wax or lead that was added to documents to certify its formal nature, that it was coming from the pope himself. From the Middle Ages until early modern times 'papal bull' was the name given to all papal letters and pronouncements, regardless of their purpose or nature. The modern terminology for an official letter from the pope is: an 'apostolic letter' or an 'apostolic brief', if it is of a less important or limited nature.

St. Patrick Parish Contact List – 2026 Revision

An update of our parish contact list is long overdue, and we need everyone to update their information. People move, change mail delivery, or change phone numbers and don't always remember to let us know. Those new to the area may not have given us their information. We ask for your help in making sure that we have your information, and that it is correct. This information is for parish use. We do not share it with others.

There is room on this form to accommodate information for three adults living in the same household. Please fill out this form and mail it to the church, put it in the collection basket, or leave it at the Gift Shop. Thank you for your help. We look forward to including you on our new list.

Simple, Quick, Easy, and APPRECIATED!

Each Lent we speak of Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving. Giving alms, Jesus teaches, means making the needs of others our own, especially the needy of our world, who are all around us. This Lent, please consider support of our local St. Vincent de Paul Conference as a way you can help the needy around you. The shelves in the SVdP food pantry always need filling. The need never ends.

If you can purchase some or all of these items, it will go a long way toward filling those shelves. You may bring the items to the St. Patrick Church hall any Wednesday or Thursday between 10 a.m. and noon. Additionally, there will be a box in the back of the church and you can place your items there. If you need someone to pick your items up, please call Martha at 602-799-0072 for pickup. Cash donations are also most welcome. Thank you for your prayers and support!

This is the HOUR
for LOVE

“This is the hour for love
a love that gives strength, a joy that gives courage.”

Each year, the Diocese of Tucson carefully assesses its resources and ability to respond with compassion to the needs of our parishes, Catholic schools, and the community it serves.

Funding from the Annual Catholic Appeal supports ministries that form new priests and deacons, strengthen parish life, support our Catholic schools, and serve those most in need.

Through your gift, love becomes service in action across our Diocese.

“Beloved, if God so loved us,
we also ought to love one another.”

1 John 4:11

Please, prayerfully consider your gift today.

Thank you and God Bless You.

Remember...
St. Patrick Church & St. Michael Mission in your Will

Today, the Parish faces a shifting landscape. Changing demographics and cultural attitudes challenge full engagement, while economic pressures make sustaining ministry more difficult.

By leaving a gift in your Will, you help ensure that the Church's mission and pastoral outreach that have been important to you and so many others will continue for today's needs and those in the future.

Please, consider leaving a planned gift that demonstrates your faith and inspires future generations to carry on Christ's work. With your help, we can build a stronger, more vibrant Faith Community for many years to come.

God bless you for your prayerful consideration.

Diocese of Tucson Vocations Prayer

Loving and generous God, we need more vocations to the priesthood.

Send us faith-filled servants to minister as dedicated and loving priests in the Diocese of Tucson. Inspire us with your Holy Spirit so that we will encourage and foster a culture of vocations in which many will hear your call to serve your people. Bless our Diocese with men and women who will work together with your priests as deacons, religious, and lay ministers to bring to life the Gospel and to realize the Church's mission in our Diocese.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
