The Baptism of the Lord Divine Office Week I Year A

Invited by Jesus

Is there anywhere humanity is more alive than family life? Family life is a celebration of incarnation, God with us. Our physical, created reality is where God is present – and family life is all about that. Our bodies are God's gift and through them we give ourselves to each other – through sexuality, pregnancy, birth, nurturing, holding, bathing, hugging, carrying, tickling, cleaning cuts, changing nappies, playing football, preparing food, smelly feet and sports gear, teenage hormones, man flu, menopause, new life or old age.

We speak of body language and it is through this that we express what goes on in our hearts. Often the small gestures speak loudest: a kiss, a touch, a cup of tea, a meal cooked, a chore done, a story read. These moments in the day to day are what nurture family life and mark us as family rather than house-sharers. Intimacy articulates the bond between us.

When faith and Gospel values shape our approach, we try to live simply, challenge injustice and share our resources with those in need. The challenge is to let the Gospel come to life in our lives: to incarnate it, put flesh on it. Our baptism invites us to be the body of Christ in the world... When we reach out beyond our own families in care and solidarity for anyone vulnerable or oppressed, we know that the Spirit of Jesus is acting through us. This is what the spirituality of family life is about – living active faith in the day to day.

Bairbre Cahill, Family Spirituality

May Mary, temple of the Spirit, help us to celebrate and welcome the wonders that the Lord works in us.  Amen.

Say "Yes"

We foolishly suppose that prayer is about our own efforts, our longing for God, our attempts to love and praise and thank him. But all of this is only a consequence, a created response. Our prayer is God's work, God's creation. As you kneel there, sit there, walk about or whatever you do when you pray, you are saying "Yes" with your whole being to his will that you should be, that you should be you, that you should be united to him. Your prayer is God's word of longing and loving in you, God's breathing of the Spirit in you, to make you want the union he wants. His desire is going through your heart to leap up to him and meet his desire again, like the desire of the writer who prayed to God to "send Wisdom"; yet it is truly your desire because he creates it as yours. His love is loving through your heart when you try to pray.

Do not be afraid! Accept the invitation of the Church and of Christ the Lord.

St Lucy: seeing signs from God

By Sr Thérèse Garman OLP

After praying at St Agatha's shrine with Lucy, Lucy's mother was cured of a persistent illness and agreed to distribute their wealth among the poor people. The rich pagan whom she had wanted Lucy to marry against her mother's will was furious. Soldiers tried to take Lucy away forcibly. They could not move her, but her eyes were gouged out. She attributed her strength to the power of Jesus. Lucy means "light" and her witness over-came the spiritual darkness of her day and also helps us to rejoice in the light even in our darkest moments. At baptism, we were entrusted with the light of Christ. The vision of God's glory, revealed through Jesus, was so clear to Lucy that physical blindness did not obscure it. She embodies true vision, an example to us of spiritual understanding, focusing on Christ and his promises rather than the fleeting physical realities of this world.

Sr Thérèse Garman is a Sister of Our Lady of Providence and a treasured former member of the Redemptorist Publications editorial team

Parish Life

The Canon Beausang Parish Room Please leave the Canon Beausang Room to clean and tidy.
Please don't leave it for someone else to do, that someone else is busy too. Thank you in advance for your co operation.

The Thursday Club after the 10am Mass.
Drop by for a cup of tea with friends, you'll be most welcome.

Knit and Natter follows on after the Thursday Club. Bring a craft you love to share stories, tips and talents.

Little Church (Children's Liturgy) is back this Sunday the 11th January at 9.30am and 11am.
The children take part in the offertory procession.

The Youth Group This week our youth group tried their hand at making a Brazilian bread called Pão de queijo, and very tasty it was too. Made in small rolls that are lighter than a dough but heavier than a French choux pastry and traditionally eaten for breakfast, gluten free made with cheese. Delicious!

RCIA OCIA/RCIA The parish RICA group meet on Saturday's at 11am. If you are interested in becoming Catholic please visit the parish website and speak to Fr Ben.

Flowers A large display of flowers and foliage donated to the parish, have been removed from the sacristy kitchen. The Flower Arranging Team would be most grateful if these could be returned as soon as possible.

Food Bank Donations Please do not leave clothes and toys at the back of the church for the food bank. The Trussell Trust will only accept food items.

Lost Property Items There are a number of lost property items on the table in the narthex, please check
