FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS RECEIVES BLUE VERIFICATION BADGE

Nassau County, FL, 7/7/23 – The Nassau County Supervisor of Elections office announces the award of the blue checkmark verification badge on Facebook. Our agency sought this verification badge to ensure that voters have confidence in the information we share on Facebook. This verification badge means that Facebook has confirmed that we are the authentic and official entity for election information in Nassau County. Information posted on our Facebook page will now always have the blue checkmark verification badge beside our name to help voters be able to distinguish between the information being posted from our office and potential fraudulent posts or information.

This verification badge build trusts, creates transparency in the elections process and promotes communication with the voters of Nassau County. "We are to pleased to receive this verification and encourage every voter to visit our Facbook page in order to stay informed and to Get Election Ready," states Supervisor Janet H. Adkins.

For any questions regarding this new app or election-related concerns, don't hesitate to contact 904-491-7500 or info@VoteNassauFL.gov.
