FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS MAILS NEW VOTER CARDS AHEAD OF 2022 ELECTION CYCLE

Nassau County, FL, 5/25/22– Janet H. Adkins, Supervisor of Elections for Nassau County, will be mailing new voter information cards to all registered voters in Nassau County. This mailing is following the decennial redistricting of 2021 and the approval of new precinct lines by the Board of County Commissioners. The Nassau County Supervisor of Elections Office will be partnering with several new locations throughout the county to serve as polling places for the 2022 Election Cycle.

The new voter information cards will contain the voters polling place in the bottom right corner of the card. Voters are encouraged to review their card for accurate information and contact the Nassau County Elections Office with any questions or concerns.

"We are urging voters to get election ready by reviewing their voter information card, visiting our website for important dates and asking them to contact our office with any election related concerns. We are here to serve you." states Supervisor Janet Adkins. Voters can also review their voter information by visiting the Elections Office website at www.VoteNassauFL.gov and selecting "Am I registered?" on the homepage.

For any questions regarding this mailing or election-related concerns, don't hesitate to contact 904-491-7500 or info@VoteNassauFL.gov.
