The Presentation of Our Lord and Savior in the Temple

February 2

When the most pure Mother and Ever-Virgin Mary's forty days of purification had been fulfilled, she took her first-born Son to Jerusalem on this, the fortieth day after His birth, that she might present Him in the temple according to the Law of Moses, which teaches that every first-born male child be dedicated to God, and also that she might offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons, as required by the Law (Luke 2:22-24; Exod. 13:2; Lev. 12:6-8). On this same day, a just and devout man, the greatly aged Symeon, was also present in the temple, being guided by the Holy Spirit. For a long time, this man had been awaiting the salvation of God, and he had been informed by divine revelation that he would not die until he beheld the Lord's Christ. Thus, when he beheld Him at that time and took Him up into his aged arms, he gave glory to God, singing: "Now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, O Master. . ." And he confessed that he would close his eyes joyfully, since he had seen the Light of revelation for the nations and the Glory of Israel (Luke 2:25-32). From ancient times, the Holy Church has retained this tradition of the churcning of the mother and new-born child on the fortieth day and of the reading of prayers of purification.

The Apodosis of the Feast of the Meeting in the Temple is usually on the 9th of February. This, however, may vary if the Feast falls within the period of the Triodion. Should this occur, the Typicon should be consulted for specific information concerning the Apodosis of the Feast.

Apolytikion of Presentation of Our Lord in the First Tone

Hail Virgin Theotokos full of Grace, for Christ our God, the Sun of Righteousness, has dawned from you, granting light to those in darkness. And you, O Righteous Elder, rejoice, taking in your arms, the Deliverance of our souls, who grants us Resurrection.

Kontakion of Presentation of Our Lord in the First Tone

Your birth sanctified a Virgin's womb and properly blessed the hands of Symeon. Having now come and saved us O Christ our God, give peace to Your commonwealth in troubled times and strengthen those in authority, whom You love, as only the loving One.

Do I Gain Anything by Fasting and Praying?

Fasting is first and foremost an expression of our faith and love for God. For those we love, we willingly make sacrifices; so too in Lent, we offer a small sacrifice to place God first in our lives. Fasting calls for an act of will and allows us to share, in a small way, in Christ's crucifixion, guarding our hearts from being overwhelmed by daily distractions.

Fasting is also a powerful spiritual weapon. As St Isaac the Syrian teaches, if Christ Himself fasted, how can we neglect it? By fasting, we detach from worldly concerns and turn our focus toward repentance and spiritual growth. "The sacrifices of God are a contrite spirit" (Psalm 51:17). As our passions are calmed, our spiritual vision becomes clearer, our conscience awakens, and our desire for repentance deepens.

Fasting strengthens prayer. St Basil the Great says it lifts our prayers to God "as if on wings," and St John Chrysostom reminds us that during fasting the soul becomes lighter and more attentive. This is why fasting is such a blessed time for sincere, repentant prayer.

Yet fasting is not only about food. True fasting involves the whole person—turning away from sin and embracing humility, mercy, and love. As St John Chrysostom teaches, the eyes, ears, tongue, and hands must also fast. To fast rightly is to feed the hungry, comfort the suffering, forgive others, and practice compassion and peace.

As we fast bodily, let us also fast spiritually, uniting outward discipline with inward humility. Lent is a sacred season of prayer, repentance, confession, and preparation to receive the Holy Mysteries. Fasting and prayer are a healing remedy for the soul. As the Fathers affirm, fasting purifies the heart, drives away evil, and opens the way to repentance and salvation.

In the Love and Service of our Lord Jesus,
+Fr. Vasileios

"Your Own From Your Own we offer to You..."

A little boy asked his father, "Daddy, can I have ten dollars?" The father, wanting to understand, told the boy "Yes, but can you tell me what you plan to do with ten dollars?" The little boy replied quietly, "Daddy, I need the money to buy you a present."

We are not so different from that little boy. In every Divine Liturgy, when our gifts of bread and wine are blessed and lifted up in offering to God our Father, we hear the words, "Your own from Your own we offer to You." We acknowledge that, just like the little boy buying a gift for his father, everything we have and everything we offer to God first comes from Him. In the Divine Liturgy, we offer bread and wine to God with thanksgiving. He returns them to us as His body and blood in Holy Communion as we receive Jesus Christ within us.

"...but make me worthy, Your sinful and unworthy servant, to offer these Gifts unto You. For You are the Offerer and the Offered, Who accepts and is distributed, O Christ our God...." Priestly prayers before Holy Communion

See our Church, Not as it Is, But as it Could Be.

Too often, we view St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church in terms of survival—asking what it costs, what is owed, what are my dues for the year, how much do I owe? These are all earthly concerns. A more faithful question is: What can I give and do so that the Church may become all it is meant to be—the Body of Christ in the world? With vision and faith, we desire not only a church for ourselves, but one for generations yet to come.

As Orthodox Christians, we see the world as God's gift and a means of communion with Him. Like the boy in the New Testament who offered five loaves and two fish, and Jesus multiplied them to feed the 5,000, we are called to offer what we have, God receives our humble gifts and multiplies them to feed the world.

When we see great need in our community and in the world, we may ask, "If God is so loving, then why is there so much poverty and suffering in the world? Where is God when we need Him?" Sometimes the need is so overwhelming that to help at all seems impossible, but in the miracle of the five loaves and two fish, we are taught to offer what we have, no matter the amount, and miracles will happen.

So it is with our church, we often imagine only what is humanly possible. If we do our part in faith, God will lovingly return to us much more than we could ever imagine. This is the true meaning of "Your own from Your own." We will see our church, not as it is, but as it could be, with our humble gifts multiplied by God's generosity and love. With our faithful offering, we will see in our church as they did in the early Church, "...the Lord added to their number daily, those who were being saved" (Acts 2:47).

“Remember, Lord, those who bear fruit and do good works in Your holy churches, and those who remember the poor. Reward them with Your rich and heavenly gifts. Grant them in return for earthly things, heavenly gifts; for temporal, eternal; for corruptible, incorruptible.” - from the Divine Liturgy of St Basil the Great

May God remember all who bear fruit, do good works, and care for the poor, and reward them with heavenly and eternal gifts
