These prices are effective as of March 1, 2026 and are subject to change without notice. The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected. This list does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to buy for you, such as cemetery or crematory services, flowers and newspaper notices. The prices for those items will be shown on your bill or the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected. We may charge for our services in buying these items.

It is our mission, our purpose, our calling, to support and nurture you in a warm, loving and professional atmosphere and in a thorough manner. Every family we serve, and each life lived is, in some way, special and unique. It is our desire to help you plan a funeral or memorial service which is meaningful to you, one which satisfies your emotional and aesthetic needs; one which genuinely represents the life and values of the deceased. This may involve a “traditional” type service or a “celebration of one’s life”. For example, it may include displaying some special objects during the visitation, such as hobbies or pictures of the deceased.

Take time to choose what services and tributes would best fit your needs. It is important that you make decisions that are meaningful to you. It is also important that the funeral costs are acceptable to you. We feel a strong commitment to meet your financial needs and have developed several price options and packages to achieve this. We want to know if we fail to meet these standards of excellence in our service. We want our service to be the highest level of excellence to you, our family.

Service Offerings

Cremation Services

A common misconception is that cremation prevents the possibility of holding a funeral service or visitation. This is not true; you can still have a memorial service to celebrate your loved one's life, with many options available for honoring their memory. After cremation, you can choose from various final disposition methods:

- Interment: Bury or entomb your loved one's cremated remains in a family plot, memorial site, cremation niche, or urn garden. Consult our staff for detailed interment options.
- Graveside Service: Similar to traditional burial, this service allows loved ones to honor the deceased during the burial of the cremated remains with prayers and tributes.
- Scattering: Spread the cremated remains in a memorial garden, cemetery, over water, or any meaningful location. You may also choose to scatter some remains while retaining the rest in an urn for interment.
- Multiple Urns: Distribute the cremated remains into several urns, enabling family members separated by distance to have a nearby resting place for their loved one.
- These options allow for meaningful tributes that reflect the individuality of your loved one.

Burial Services

We offer a variety of burial services tailored to your individual needs and preferences:

- Immediate Burial: The loved one is buried or entombed without a public service.
- Visitation (Viewing/Wake): Family and friends gather with the deceased in an open or closed casket to offer support and say goodbye.
- Funeral or Memorial Service: Held at a funeral home, church, or home, these personalized ceremonies celebrate and honor the deceased's life.
- Graveside, Chapel, or Committal Service: Conducted at the cemetery, this service allows family and friends to witness the final disposition through ground burial.

Basic Services of Funeral Director and Staff (and overhead) ---------- $2,895

Our charge includes funeral counseling, necessary arrangements, recording vital statistics, securing permits, filing and obtaining death certificates and other forms and claims, preparation of necessary notices, coordination of service plans with parties involved in the final disposition of the deceased, necessary administrative, accounting, and clerical services. This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials and forwarding or receiving remains.

Our firm has established a uniform payment policy to serve all families fairly and to alleviate misunderstandings. A sound credit policy enables us to contain our costs to the families we serve. As a small business providing services and merchandise, we are totally dependent upon our clients for prompt payment. Our general credit policy is that the entire amount of the funeral is due and payable prior to services being rendered. We realize that caring for the death of a loved one is often unexpected and unplanned. For your convenience, we offer the following payment options:

Personal Check • Bank Check

Cash • Visa • MasterCard • Prearrangement

The following are acceptable credit arrangements:

Assignable Life Insurance:

Life insurance may be used as a means of full or partial payment for funeral and other related expenses. A fee of $415 per policy will be charged and reflected on your statement of goods and services as an “insurance assignment fee.”

We regret that we are unable to accept settlement of estates through attorneys or probate court as a means of financial arrangements. All unpaid balances from the date of service accrue a finance charge of 2% per month (24% per year).
