Volunteer Code of Conduct

As a volunteer, you are a valued part of the Friends of Broomfield Park (FoBP). This Code of Conduct is here to help everyone enjoy a safe, respectful, and positive environment.

1. Be Respectful

- Treat everyone - volunteers, visitors, and the wider community - with kindness, patience, and respect.
- Respect different views, backgrounds, and experiences.

2. Be Safe

- Follow health and safety guidelines during all activities.
- Look out for your own safety and the safety of others.
- Report any hazards or accidents to the volunteer coordinator.

3. Be Reliable

- Turn up on time for activities you've committed to or let the group lead know if you can't make it.
- Do your best to complete tasks as agreed.

4. Be Supportive

- Work as a team and offer help when you can.
- Be welcoming to new volunteers and inclusive to all.

5. Respect the Park

- Take care of Broomfield Park and its facilities.
- Support our mission to conserve and improve the park for everyone.

6. Represent Us Well

- Be a positive ambassador for FoBP in all public interactions.
- Avoid using offensive language or behaviour at any time while volunteering.
- Remember, you are helping represent a charity with a strong community purpose.

7. Keep It Appropriate

- Respect personal boundaries and avoid behaviour that could be seen as harassment or discrimination.

- Raise any concerns or issues with the volunteer coordinator confidentially and appropriately.

By volunteering with FoBP, you agree to follow this Code of Conduct. It helps us all work together to make Broomfield Park the best it can be—for nature, and for the community.
