*State/County/Local Government General Resources

What forms of assistance are available from the State of Michigan?
The MI Bridges site has information on several topics like health care, cash assistance, food assistance, WIC, and much more. The website is www.newmibridges.michigan.gov
On the homepage you will see the heading "What Benefits are Available to You". Scroll down and you will see 6 topics. Click on any/all of them to get details. Scroll further down the homepage, you will see the topic "Need Additional Resources?" Click on the big blue button which is labeled "Find Resources". You will be taken to a page which discusses 15 major life events to learn information about available assistance. The website is very user friendly. Additionally, you can navigate the website as a guest to see the assistance topics you most need. However, you must open an account to actually avail yourself of any benefits.

What forms of assistance are available in Livingston County?
The Livingston County Human Services Collaborative Body website has information on many topics.
The website is www.milivcounty.gov/hscb
Scrolling down on the homepage you will see two large blue buttons. The one entitled "Community Resource List" will link you to a comprehensive guide of community resources available in Livingston County. The button entitled "Food Resources' will link you to a list of Livingston County Hunger Council's pantry and meal programs.

Additionally, by visiting another website, you will find resources, information, and initiatives for specific topics of interest: www.milivcounty.gov/hscb/resources

Further valuable information can be found in the Livingston County Resource Guide. It was published December 2022, but the information contained in it is still extremely pertinent. Access the guide here: https://milivcounty.gov/wp-content/uploads/2022-Community-Resource-Guide.pdf

All three of these websites offer a wealth of information and are very user friendly.
