About the Homestay

Welcomes Males Females Couples Families Students

Hello, welcome to Tropical Fort Lauderdale! You are welcome to stay in my safe, cozy home - with your own private bathroom, wifi, TV, and access to use the kitchen if needed.

I do live with 2 sweet kitties, but they do not enter Your Guest Room- but please be aware in case you are very allergic. Parking in front of my house is available and a personal door code will be customized to come and go as you please. Also, I am sorry that I do not have a coffee maker because I do not drink coffee- but there are several cafe's and markets within walking distance. :)
