Isaiah 6:8-9 ...Then said I, Here am I; send me.

And he said, Go, and tell this people...

John 4:35b ...Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

Alaska Basketball Camp – words can hardly describe the great need and opportunity amongst the native peoples of Alaska. There are 229 federally recognized Native Tribal Groups in the state. We were with the Inupiaq and Yupik peoples in the Villages of Unalakleet, St. Michael and Stebbins. We were surrounded by the beautiful creation of God and 18+hrs of daylight but the spiritual darkness could be felt. The similarities of the people to our Navajo and Zuni people were abundant. There is a great opportunity to reach people in these villages with the Gospel, it will take some of God's choice servants to thrive in this harsh environment, but the eternal reward will be unimaginable. There are people everywhere in this world and the greatest need that they have is to receive the Salvation of God through our Lord Jesus Christ. How shall they call upon Him, believe in Him and hear of Him unless we who have the good news go. God is still calling, let's be listening. If you would like to see a video of our trip produced by Bro. Haynes it can be found by following this link https://youtu.be/b0xqV0GeKO4?si=jRZ_sbCvPIOmRPi4

While I was gone to Alaska, I received the news and pictures of our first grandbaby. (Aubree Faye Oster) What a wonderful blessing of the Lord.

Missions Trip – Our home church, Cleburne County Baptist Church came in August to help us with several projects and have a special day. It was great to have the fellowship and help with the work. We had a single VBS style service on Sunday evening since school had already started. Several visitors from Zuni and Pinehill came for the first time and heard the Gospel. Soon after the Ramah Navajo Fair/Rodeo started, we were able to walk the parade route passing out John/Romans to people in their cars and on the sides of the road. I was able to witness to one traditional lady in particular named Lena who listened very intently and had questions.

Gospel Round pen Horse Training – In September we hosted a horse training seminar with Pastor Burson Corley from Farmington, NM. Our desire was to get a particular individual to come to the event to hear the gospel, although he didn't come with his kids, we did have several visitors attend and hear the clear principles of God's word that applies to family, child training and Christian living. This all took place as an unruly horse was learning to behave and submit to the master!

Thank you for praying for our family! God's ways are higher than our ways, but he invites us into a wonderful partnership through prayer. I can't count all the times that God has protected our family, and I have no way of explaining it other than intercessory prayer and God's grace. Every day is a gift from God; the life we now live for Him is our Present.

To live is Christ,
