Newly planted rice fields

Flowers for Mother's Day

THE SHULL FAMILY

CAMBODIA | JUNE 2025

With the coming of the rainy season in Cambodia, the fields are beginning to take on the bright green shades of newly planted rice. With the hope of a harvest in their hearts, men and women are seen spending much time and effort preparing the fields to receive the seed as the dark clouds signal the coming monsoon rains. What is not so easily seen, however, is the time and labor spent by former generations of farmers who, with that same hope of a harvest, toiled to clear jungles, uproot trees, build dikes, and fertilize barren land. Their forgotten labor has made it possible for the current generation of farmers to reap a harvest year after year.

In much the same way, the mission fields of the world have laborers who are toiling in the fields. Some are reaping a wonderful harvest of souls, some are tending fields that are just beginning to sprout, some are plowing up fallow ground, and some are clearing untamed land with the hope of a great harvest in the future. No matter our setting, our calling demands a faithful and fervent hope in the invisible working of the Spirit and a persevering passion to sow the seed of the Gospel. He is able!

In May, we enjoyed celebrating Mother's Day with Randy's mom, Sharon Shull. We also had a good day teaching the children in our Bible Clubs about the love of a mother and how it reflects the love of God for people. We are especially grateful for the children who have been coming consistently for the past 2 years. Please pray that they would understand that salvation is found exclusively in Jesus Christ.

Please continue to pray for the adults with whom we have made connections. Pray Randy can continue teaching Olm Sote and Tee the truths of the Gospel. Pray for Naomi as she does a Bible study with an elderly woman near our home.

It is hard to see some of our teens move away or fall away from faith, but it is even more exciting to see the faithfulness of Srey Neet, a teenager who was saved over a year ago. She continues to join us for Bible study and prayer. Please pray that she would grow in her faith and witness.

We are now making plans for our upcoming furlough and scheduling meetings from June 2026 – May 2027. We look forward to spending time with family and friends and to reporting back to our supporting churches. Please pray that all the details would fall into place as we schedule meetings and make travel arrangements.

With gratitude, Randy and Naomi Shull

Please pray with us:

- Bible Club kids understanding the need for salvation.
- Adults continuing with Bible studies
- Srey Neet's growth and witness
- Upcoming furlough arrangement
- Growth in our skills at presenting the Gospel in an understandable and dynamic way.
