

BONNIE'S BOURBON & WINE BAR

AT BELLE MEADE WINERY

Bonnie's Bourbon & Wine Bar is named after Bonnie Scotland, the greatest sire ever to stand at Belle Meade.

Purchased by William G. Harding in 1871, Bonnie Scotland became one of the most influential Thoroughbred sires in American racing history. His bloodline can be traced to more than two-thirds of all Kentucky Derby winners, including 11 of the 13 Triple Crown champions.

Bonnie Scotland died at Belle Meade in 1880 — the same year he was named America's leading sire. His extraordinary legacy remains an enduring part of Belle Meade's Thoroughbred history.
