NEW BULLETIN NEW LOOK
Beginning this March our bulletin will have a new look. St. Joseph and Saints Peter & Paul have joined with LPI Integrated Parish Communications to print our bulletins. These bulletins are paid for exclusively by sponsorship. We are so grateful to all our businesses who continue to sponsor our bulletin each year! If you would like to hear more about getting your business in our bulletin, please call the parish office at 920-743-4842.

"We wish to express our gratitude to the Jim Morrow family for their generous donation to our parish in memory of Shirley Morrow. Thank you for remembering us at Saints Peter & Paul!"

As a Catholic community each of us are faces of faith and called to go forth and share the Good News. This year the Bishop's Appeal is offering each of us the opportunity to reach out to those in need as well as continue the ministry and education programs within our own parish. Soon you will be receiving a letter in the mail asking you to give a gift to the Bishop's Appeal. I encourage you to prayerfully consider giving generously to this year's Appeal.

With all our limitations and weaknesses, we come before the God of love, who gives us fullness of life.

MASS MINUTES
By Deacon Ed Winter
Each weekend a collection is taken up at the time we call Offertory. In conversations one might hear complaints, and there are many jokes, about the frequency of special collections. "The Church is always asking for money."
We must remember, first, that we are the church. Secondly, we have many bills to pay at home and so do we have at Church. For thousands of years there was a Temple Tax to support the place of worship, the place where God resided, the place of the Ark of the Covenant, God's footstool.
More important, though, than the material needs is the need for the faithful to offer themselves to their creator. We do this by offering the work of our hands. In AD 155, Justin Martyr described the custom of people bringing bread and wine to the priest. This developed into the practice of a representative of the people bring, in addition to the bread and wine, oil, honey, wool, fruit, wax, or flowers. (Dr. Edward Sri)
The product of our labors represents us, personally. In keeping with the tradition of offering the "First Fruits" of our labor, whether intellectual or physical, it is our produce.

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
In the Gospel today, we find that Jesus would rise very early before dawn and go to a deserted place to pray and then he went out to preach and heal.
Please pray for the poor and suffering, knowing that you are bringing the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear, doubt, loneliness and dread.
As Vincentians, we are sometimes asked why we help some who do not "deserve" it. Our response is:
"The Undeserving Poor"
"The undeserving poor are the ones who make it hard to help the poor. They are the ones who have been helped before—and it didn't help. They are the ones who seem to expect us to bail them out, and who hardly say thank you when we do. They are the ones who seem to take advantage of the system, or other people.
HELP THEM ANYWAY!
If you start to distinguish between the deserving and the undeserving poor, you are finished—at least as far as the Gospel is concerned. Who is really to decide if they are undeserving? Jesus was never overly careful about metering out his mercy. The undeserving poor remind us that something deeper needs to change—whatever it is that makes them feel so helpless and hopeless.
We need to address that something deeper. In the meantime, help them. Do not be overly judgmental or overly careful. If you are going to err, err on the side of compassion."
"The Gospel takes away our right forever, to discriminate between the deserving and undeserving poor." (Dorothy Day)
Anyone wanting to know additional information about the work of the Society, contact Denis McCarthy at 715-212-1190.

Little Black Books are available at the entrance to church. Suggested donation of $2.00.
Enjoy 6 minutes a day with God.

The Catholic Mass is an amazing and rich aspect of tour faith, but it is difficult for children to engage with its language, symbolism, and miraculous nature. You can find a Catholic Kids bulletin at the entrance to church. These bulletins will help children to learn about the Sunday Mass with different activities while they grow up in our amazing faith.
