TRUSTEE ELECTION

September 19th and 20th, we will have an election for Secretary Trustee.

We thank Bill Graf for his years of faithful service to our parish as Trustee and in the many other ways he shared his time, talents and dedication. His commitment and willingness to serve made a meaningful difference in our parish community. Thank you, Bill! Fr. Matthew appointed Lawrence Tanck to the role of trustee in the interim. Fr. Matthew has nominated Lawrence to be on the ballot in September.

We welcome in Holy BaptismCharles Francis Holznecht

son of Charles & Ashlei Hoznecht

God bless Charles.

someone who you think would like to serve on the parish council as a trustee, please submit their name to the office or put in the collection basket at Sunday Mass.

Do you like to sing? Have you thought about joining the choir but haven't acted yet?
Consider joining us for memorial masses to try it out. Funeral music usually consists of well-known, common hymns so no need to worry about missing a practice. There is no commitment to attend every service, all will be welcome. Email or text Heidi to be added to the list for upcoming funeral masses.

In Last Sunday's gospel from Matthew 16 we hear, arguably, Simon's biggest moment. Jesus renames him Peter and tells him he will be the rock upon which the church will be built. But as the chapter continues in this week's gospel, he is chastised by Jesus, who calls him a stumbling block to His mission.

Life is an up and down struggle for all of us as we try to chart our path in the world. One moment everything is going your way and the next thing you know the paradigm has shifted and you're being shoved aside. You see it time and again throughout scripture and it happens every day in our world. Many of our "Friends" come to us in just those circumstances. They've hit a bump in the road, and they need a little help to get over it. That's what friends are for and that's why we're here.

MASS MINUTES By Deacon Ed Winter

How do we show reverence for God at Mass? In all that we do and at all times. We observe silence as soon as we enter the church. If we need to speak, we do so in a hushed voice. We then cross our bodies with holy water to remind ourselves of our baptism in which we were committed to follow Christ. We genuflect to lower ourselves in the presence of God in the tabernacle. As the priest, who stands in the place of Christ enters, we rise in reverence. The priest and deacon, if present, reverence the altar, where Christ will renew his sacrifice, by kissing the altar. We all then prepare ourselves for the mysteries coming by acknowledging our unworthiness. We sit quietly listening to the inspired word of God and then stand to hear the words of Jesus himself in the gospel. We sit for the homily as students to be instructed regarding the scriptures we have just heard.

We formally offer our gifts including bread and wine to the celebrant so that he can offer them to God. We kneel in reverence as the celebrant repeats the words Christ used when he changed bread and wine into his Body and Blood the night before he died. We reverently approach the Eucharist in a body of faithful followers to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus. Finally, we are sent back out into the world changed, as disciples of Jesus, to spread the Good News of the Gospel.

So clearly, everything we say or do, before, during, and after the Mass is to express our reverence of our God.

Next: Christ renews his passion.
