Edge and Life Teen

Middle & High School Religious Education & Youth Ministry

July is another busy month for youth ministry! We are gathering with our students, spending time in fellowship, food, and lots of prayer and discussion. Parents/guardians, please see your email for details on when we meet.

Our week in Kansas City was remarkable and so impactful. Our youth are on FIRE for the Lord and want to share with YOU all about their experiences. Please stay tuned for the date that we invite you to an evening of appetizers, desserts, prayer, and testimonies from the youth. Those who attended last year left inspired and hopeful! Whether or not you were able to support the trip financially, ALL are welcome.

If you want to see pictures from their mission trip, go to Sturgeon Bay Edge and Life Teen on Facebook. Sarah has shared the pictures.

Totus Tuus is just a few weeks away! It's not too late to register!

Parents of elementary and middle school students (through current 7th graders): Don't forget to sign up for Totus Tuus! July 28-August 1st. It's an amazing program led by college-aged students who give our youth a vacation bible school they will never forget.

Email Sarah at stgavin25@gmail.com for more information.

We are also looking for volunteers and financial supporters. Please contact Sarah if you would like to know more.

What's happening in Adult Formation!

There is a wonderful Bible Study every Tuesday at 10:00 am at St. Joseph's Faith Formation Center. Come join Penny Biwer as she leads a reviving bible study on the weekly readings that will stir your spirit.

St. Vincent de Paul St. Joseph Conference 920-388-9644

A couple weeks ago, on the Feast of Corpus Christi we heard the familiar Gospel story of "the Loaves and the Fishes." This is just one of many instances where we see Jesus swaying from his main mission, to address the souls of his followers, to demonstrate concern for their human needs. As Christians, we have a responsibility to spread the good news to our fellow man, but we also have a responsibility to help our friends with their worldly needs. You would be surprised how often the help we provide to our "Friends in Need" creates an opportunity for friendly Christian conversation that otherwise would not have occurred. More often than not, the conversation is initiated by those being helped. Maybe that was Christ's intention when he performed that miracle?

Mass Minute with Deacon Ed Winter

After the first reading in the Mass, we hear selections from a psalm, what is called the responsorial psalm. The 150 psalms in the bible are songs of praise and thanksgiving composed by multiple authors over many years, from pre-exilic, pre-587 to post-exilic, post 539 BC. Most were composed for liturgical worship. 73 of the psalms are attributed to King David.

In the temple, the verses would be sung by two groups alternating. Today, when praying the Liturgy of the Hours in a group, we may follow the same pattern; half of the group will alternate with the other half singing verses and all together singing the response.

At least as early as the third century, psalms were recited at Mass. There are songs of praise, thanksgiving, and laments, both individual and communal with frequent expressions of trust. (USCCB)

"Shouts of praise and affirming echo the awe-filling joy of the angels and saints in the presence of God." Dr. Edward Sri.

Fr. Douglas Martis of Mundelein Seminary put together the Mundelein Psalter, an attempt to restore the temple tradition. The original music has been long lost but new chant tunes have been composed. The temple tradition continues today in the Mass in the psalms.
