St. Vincent de Paul
St. Joseph Conference

At Mass last Sunday, Fr. Brunner mentioned that this Sunday would be one of the two Sundays out of the year that the priest would wear rose vestments. This is to celebrate the fact that we are getting closer to the Resurrection. How many other big events in your life do you celebrate, simply the fact that you're getting closer to that time? And you have to consider that the Resurrection actually happened two thousand years ago. So, you're celebrating the fact that you are closer to celebrating the remembrance of an event that occurred so long ago that you can't ever remember anyone who could possibly remember it. And yet there are few if any places in the world that won't be celebrating on Easter.

Easter is not just a big deal. It's the biggest deal ever. This Sunday we celebrate the fact that you have just a short time left to prepare yourself for the most important event in your life. Are you going to be ready? The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be praying for you and all of our "Friends in Need."

GIVE ALMS.

PROVIDE HOPE.

The Sixth week of Lent, For St. Vincent de Paul—St Joseph Conference please donate Personal Care items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, shampoo, conditioner, soap, and toilet paper. St Vincent de Paul serves those in need in our community, offering not only material help, but also compassion and hope.

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"
Matthew 21:9 ESV

Mass Minutes
By Deacon Ed Winter

How does music relate to, or belong in, worship? Music and singing have been used in religion and worship since prehistoric times. One of the oldest examples of such music we have and use are the Psalms, one of the books of the bible. 73 of the 150 Psalms are attributed to King David 3000 years ago. Most of the Psalms were composed precisely for liturgical worship. The Psalms are songs; unfortunately, the music has long been lost.

"Sing to the Lord a new song, sing to the Lord all the earth. Sing to the Lord, bless his name; announce his salvation day after day." (Ps 96)

"How can we sing the songs of the Lord in a foreign land?" (Ps 137)

["A hymn is a song of praise in which a community is urged joyfully to sing out the praise of God,"

"The beauty of music is added to prayer."

"The Psalms are a "School of prayer. They not only provide us with models to follow but they inspire us to voice our own deepest feelings and aspirations." (The Catholic Bible. Personal Study Edition]

Next: "I can't sing."
