24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." - Mt 18:21-22

Do you like to sing? Have you thought about joining the choir but haven't acted yet? Consider joining us for memorial masses to try it out. Funeral music usually consists of well-known, common hymns so no need to worry about missing a practice. There is no commitment to attend every service, all will be welcome. Email or text Heidi to be added to the list for upcoming funeral masses. Dinnercook@gmail.com or 920-255-2415.

SEPTEMBER INTENTIONS

Holy Father's Intention

Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it, We pray to the Lord.

Bishop Ricken's Intention

May the journey of those which has led them away from Mass now lead them once again to discover God's love for them, celebrated in the Eucharist, We pray to the Lord

ST VINCENT de PAUL

Growing up, I was certain that I know what I was going to do with my life. I did many things to prepare myself for my future. When I was 17, I found out I did not possess a vital qualification. I wouldn't say that I was devastated but I didn't have a backup plan. At that point God took over. In complete honesty, I've never searched for a job in my life. I've never been unemployed; from the time I was 10 years old until I retired. I worked for 8 different organizations in that time, and I never initiated my job search. In each situation a person came to me and asked me if I would be interested in working for them. Each opportunity put me in a better situation in my life. It's hard for me to believe, but it's the truth.

We all have a free will. We can make our own plans and when they work out that can be great. But God has plans for each of us also. Sometimes it's best to listen for Him, let Him take the lead, follow where he points. I have a comfortable life. I've been happily married to my black, Baptist wife from Mississippi for 42 years and despite the fact that I grew up in Detroit, I now live in the bucolic splendor of Nasewaupee, WI. I can't explain any of it. I couldn't have planned it. I had to look up how to spell Nasewaupee.

MASS MINUTES By Deacon Ed Winter

The angel, Gabriel, said to Mary, the Blessed Virgin, "The Holy Spirit shall come upon you and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, the child to be born will be called Holy, the Son of God." (Lk 1:35)

In the Nicene Creed, we pray, "I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ [who] by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became Man."

At the altar, in the Eucharist Prayer II, the celebrant prays, "Make Holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dew fall so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ." The other optional Eucharistic prayers say the same thing in slightly different words.

St. James and Clement, contemporaries with Jesus, in their writings attribute the transubstantiation to the Holy Spirit.

"Holy Mass is the Chief and sublimest work of the Holy Spirit." (The Incredible Catholic Mass, Fr. Martin Cochem)

Pray for us

Please consider helping us reach our goal of 25 Bibles!

Sharing the words of our Lord is one of the greatest gifts given to us! Bishop Ricken of the Green Bay Diocese has challenged all of us to get the words of our Lord into the hands of every child. We are inviting you to help make Bishop Ricken's dream a reality by sponsoring the Elementary Faith Formation Bible Buddy Program. Each Bible will have the name of the sponsor, and each sponsor will receive the name of the child who received their bible as each will be encouraged to pray for the other. Please, see flyer for more information.
