DEACON'S CORNER
By: Deacon Mark
All deacon candidates; both transitional deacon, those men in seminary who will be ordained priests, and permanent deacons participate in four rites of the Roman Catholic Church. All of these rites are part of a formal mass. The first is the Rite of Candidacy which typically occurs after two years of aspirancy in the formation process. Approximately one year later is the Rite of Lector where the candidate is instituted to proclaim the first and second readings from Sacred Scripture. One year after that, the candidate attends the Rite of Acolyte where he is installed into the Ministry of Acolyte and can assist the deacons and priests in the Eucharistic Liturgy. This is the last Rite prior to ordination. The Rite of Ordination to the Diaconate occurs approximately a year later. A beautiful and inspiring part of the Ordination Rite has the men being ordained lying prostrate on the cathedral floor while the Litany of the Saints is sung. After the Litany of he Saints, the men individually approach the bishop who lays his hands on the candidate and ordains them as a deacon. Following this, the newly ordained deacon is vested with a dalmatic, the proper dress of a deacon. Each newly ordained deacon now kneels before the bishop who places the Book of Gospels in their hands and says these words: "Receive the Gospel of Christ whose herald you have become. Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach." When I was ordained, I received my own personal copy of the Book of the Gospels. After each deacon has those words spoken, the bishop and all attending deacons at that ordination mass give the sign of peace to those newly ordained. The Rite of Ordination to the Diaconate confers a permanent indelible mark on the soul of the men being ordained.

MASS MINUTES
By Deacon Ed

One meaning of “Blessing” is to invoke divine care, as for a person, and to consecrate the person to a happy and holy purpose. At Communion time at Mass, occasionally a person not receiving the Body of Christ will present themselves for a blessing. While any person may bless another, person-to-person, to do so at communion time would imply a blessing by the Church. Ordained clergy, priest or deacon, do this under the authority of their bishop. Extraordinary Ministers of Communion do not have this authority and so should not indicate the blessing with a gesture, the Sign of the Cross. Person desiring a blessing should present themselves to the priest or deacon.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. St. Vincent de Paul often asked this simple question: “What would Jesus Christ do, if He were in my place now?”

Ask yourself “What would Jesus Christ do?” So please remember those who are poor and suffering.

This past week was a challenging one for our local St. Vincent de Paul. We answered numerous requests for assistance which included “friends in need” who were homeless. One family of five, (mom and dad and three young children), were living in their car. We were able to secure temporary housing for them and will continue to work with them to improve their situation. Please keep them in your prayers as they are desperately trying to survive.

We are always looking for personal hygiene products to distribute to the needy. Items can be placed in the basket by the ramp entrance.

“Since Christ willed to be poor...he made himself the servant of the poor and shared their poverty. He went so far as to say that he would consider every deed which either helps or harms the poor as done for or against himself.” (St. Vincent de Paul)

Thanks for all the Parish support for our work here as Vincentians. Keep us in prayer.
